

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	5
SPECIFIC ASPECTS OF MICROSTATES AND JURIDICAL- INDEPENDENT SMALL JURISDICTIONS
The Influence of European Law on Aruban and Antillean Patrimonial Law	13
Carlos Bollen
1. Introduction	13
2. Legal transplants and the principle of concordance	14
3. Concordance and patrimonial law	17
4. Concordance through case law	18
5. Aruba, the Antilles and European law	19
6. Influence of European directives on Aruban and Antillean patrimonial law	19
7. The desirability and limitations of the influence of European law in Aruban and Antillean patrimonial law	22
8. Final remarks	24
Het Marron-erfrecht	26
Monique Veira
1. Inleiding	26
2. De structuur van en leiding in de Marrongemeenschap	30
3. Grondslagen van het Marron-erfrecht	32
4. Erfopvolging	36
5. De 'verdeling'	40
6. Samenvatting	43
Bibliografie	44
LEGAL EDUCATION
One State – One University	49
Britta Behrendt
1. Attracting and keeping staff	50
2. Surviving the international competition	52

3. The brain drain	52
4. Preserving identity	53
5. Raising the national elite	54

Quality Assurance Processes in Small Universities 56

Sharine A. Isabella

1. Introduction	56
2. Globalization and higher education	57
3. Small universities	58
4. Management of quality improvement and accreditation processes	60
5. Conclusions	62
References	63

LEGAL TRANSPLANTS

Should the Netherlands Antilles and Aruba adopt the Dutch Rule on a Cooling-off Period in the Sale of Residential Property (article 7:2 Dutch BW)? 69

Peter Klik

1. Introduction	69
2. The New Civil Code: Drafting Process, Dutch Law of Sales	70
3. History of the Dutch Sales Act (DSA)	70
4. Reasons Advanced in Parliament in Favour of a Cooling-off Period	72
5. Assistance of the Notary Public: Requirement or Not?	72
6. Beyond Legislative Reports: Other Sources	74
7. Looking back on the parliamentary history of Art. 7:2 BW (DSA)	75
8. Symbolic Legislation	75
9. Considerations for The Netherlands Antilles and Aruba	77
Literature	78

THE LEGISLATIVE DRAFTSMAN IN A SMALL JURISDICTION

Estonia and its new Civil Code 83

Irene Kull

Abstract	83
Introduction	85
1. Some important moments from Estonian legal history	86
2. Drafting of the Estonian Civil Code – decisions and options	88
3. Structure and style of the code	89

4. Law of Obligations Act – the successful example of legal transplanting	91
5. Interpretation and application of Civil Code	98
Conclusion	99
Consumer Protection: Problems of Codification – European Union versus Micro States	100
Brigitta Jud
1. Introduction	100
2. General aspects of consumer protection	100
3. Development of consumer protection in Europe	102
4. ‘Mixed’ systems	110
5. E. Consumer protection in Micro States	111
6. Conclusions	115
ACCESS TO JUSTICE IN SMALL JURISDICTIONS AND SPECIFIC ASPECTS OF MICROSTATES
Access to Justice in Curacao: a Practical Perspective	121
Anna van Duin LL.M.
1. What is access to justice?	121
2. Legal representation	122
3. Legal aid	123
4. Legal sources	124
5. Discussion	125
La Città del Sole. Tommaso Campanella and his ideas on a microstate – a model for Curacao?	126
Viola Heutger
Concordance in the Kingdom of the Netherlands	132
Bastiaan van der Velden
1. Concordance	132
2. Origin of the principle of concordance	133
3. Law of 8 august 1862 (S.165)	135
4. Two views on the new codes	136
5. Adaptations	137
6. Missing rules	138

7. Codes not adapted to local conditions	139
8. Land lease: huurgrond	141
9. Opinions on the legislation of 1868	142
10. Final remarks	143

Big Cases on a Small Island	144
------------------------------------	------------

Ton van der Schans

1. Introduction	144
2. Big Cases	144
3. Challenges	148
4. Recommendations	149