1 Introduction ................................................................. 1
Dana de la Fontaine and Thomas Stehnken

Part I  Historical Legacies and Socio-economic Inequalities

2 A Historical Legacy: The Development of the Brazilian Industrial Model ......................................................... 15
Amado Luiz Cervo

3 Continuities and Discontinuities in Brazilian Political and Institutional Life: Past and Present Dilemmas for Democracy ................................................................. 27
Arim Soares do Bem

4 Socio-economic and Regional Conditions in Brazil .......... 49
Martin Coy

Part II  Checks and Balances in the Political System Since 1988

5 Political Institutions and Governmental Performance in Brazilian Democracy .................................................... 63
Argelina Cheibub Figueiredo and Fernando Limongi

6 The National Congress and Brazil’s Parliamentary Elite Under the Lula Government ........................................ 83
Ana Galvão

7 The Brazilian Electoral System ....................................... 103
Jairo Nicolau and Julia Stadler

8 The Judiciary in Brazil ....................................................... 121
Leonardo Martins

Part III  Institutions of Interest Representation

9 Political Parties and the Party System ........................... 143
Juan Albarracín
10 Lobby Groups, the State and the Relationships Between the Branches of Government in Brazil ................................................. 163
Renato R. Boschi

11 Industrial Entrepreneurs, Democracy, and Political Power ........ 183
Eli Diniz and Luiz Carlos Bresser-Pereira

12 Brothers in Arms? Trade Union Politics Under the Workers Party Governments ................................................................. 201
Waldeli Melleiro and Jochen Steinhilber

13 Social Movements in Brazil in Urban and Rural Contexts: Potentials, Limits and “Paradoxes” .................................................. 229
Marcelo Lopes de Souza

14 Media and Media Policy in Brazil .............................................. 253
Carlos Eduardo Lins da Silva

Part IV Policy Fields

15 The Brazilian Economic Policy: From the Crisis of Import Substitution to the Programa de Aceleração do Crescimento ............ 265
Stefan Schmalz

16 Innovation Policy in Brazil ........................................................ 283
Thomas Steinhken

17 Economic Policy, Agricultural Policy, and Land Reform in Conflict ...................................................................................... 305
Gilberto Calcagnotto

18 Environmental Policy in Brazil. Tensions Between Conservation and the Ideology of Growth ............................................... 329
Andrea Zellhuber

19 Social Policies in Brazil: From Inclusive Liberalism to Developmental Welfare ................................................................. 351
Bernhard Leubolt

20 Gender and Politics in Brazil Between Continuity and Change .... 367
Antje Daniel and Patricia Graf

21 Brazil’s Foreign Policy: Between Self-Determination and Dependency ................................................................. 393
Dana de la Fontaine

About the Authors .................................................................. 415