

VICTIMS OF CRIME
SECOND EDITION

EDITORS
ROBERT C. DAVIS
ARTHUR J. LURIGIO
WESLEY G. SMOGAN

SAGE Publications
International Educational and Professional Publisher
Thousand Oaks London New Delhi

Contents

Foreword	vii
1. Another Look at Victim Problems, Policies, and Programs	1
Robert C. Davis
Arthur J. Lurigio
Wesley G. Skogan
PART I. VICTIMIZATION AND ITS EFFECTS
2. Patterns of Criminal Victimization in the United States	9
John H. Laub
3. Sexual Assault	27
Patricia A. Resick
Pallavi Nishith
4. Victims of Domestic Violence	53
Joel Garner
Jeffrey Fagan
5. The Victimization of Children and Youth: Developmental Victimology	86
David Finkelhor
6. Coming to Terms With the Sudden, Traumatic Death of a Spouse or Child	108
Camille B. Wortman
Esther S. Battle
Jeanne Parr Lemkau
7. Hate Crime Victimization in the United States	134
James Garofalo
8. The Psychological Consequences of Crime: Findings From a Longitudinal Population-Based Study	146
Fran H. Norris
Krzysztof Kaniasty
Martie P. Thompson

9. Victims as Agents: Implications for Victim Services and Crime Prevention	167
Robert C. Davis
Bruce G. Taylor
Richard M. Titus
PART II. PROVIDING ASSISTANCE TO VICTIMS
10. Violence Prevention Through Victim Assistance: Helping People Escape the Web of Violence	183
Lucy N. Friedman
Susan B. Tucker
11. Victim Rights and Services: A Modern Saga	194
Marlene A. Young
12. Provision for Victims in an International Context	211
Mike Maguire
Joanna Shapland
PART III. THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE RESPONSE
13. Victim Participation in the Criminal Justice System	231
Deborah P. Kelly
Edna Erez
14. Making Victims Whole Again: Restitution, Victim-Offender Reconciliation Programs, and Compensation	245
Barbara E. Smith
Susan W. Hillenbrand
15. Toward a Victim Policy Aimed at Healing, Not Suffering	257
Ezzat A. Fattah
Index	273
About the Editors	289
About the Contributors	291