
Challenging Notions

Critical Victimology in Canada

Tammy C. Landau

Canadian Scholars' Press Inc.
Toronto

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction to Victimology	1
The (Re)-Emergence of the Victim in Criminal Justice and Criminology	7
The Canadian Context	11
Questions for Further Consideration	15
Chapter 2: Challenging Notions: The Social Context of Victimhood	17
Media Representations of Crime Victims	19
What Is “Victimology”?	22
Mainstream Approaches to Victimology	22
Critical Approaches to Victimology	23
Defining the “Victim”	25
Gendering the Victim: The Case of Sexual Assault	28
Questions for Further Consideration	40
Chapter 3: Measuring Victimization	41
Uniform Crime Reports	42
Victimization Surveys	46
Alternatives Methods of Measuring Victimization	52
Self-Report Surveys	52
Institutional Data	53

Challenging Measurements: Systemic Forms of Victimization	57
Questions for Further Consideration	59
Chapter 4: General Patterns of Victimization in Canada	61
General Patterns of Victimization	63
Characteristics of Violent Incidents	65
Responding to Victimization	68
Thinking about Violent Victimization	71
Questions for Further Consideration	72
Chapter 5: Patterns of Violence within the Family in Canada	73
Spousal Violence	74
Responding to Spousal Violence	78
Thinking about Spousal Violence	81
Family Violence against Children and Youth	81
Thinking about Family Violence against Children and Youth	85
Family Violence against Older Adults	85
Thinking about Family Violence against Older Adults	88
Questions for Further Consideration	91
Chapter 6: Challenging Victimizations: Two Cases in Point	93
Aboriginal Peoples, Victimization, and the Criminal Process	94
The Social Context of Aboriginal Peoples and the Criminal Justice System	98
Hate Crimes in Canada	104
Responding to Hate	105
Measuring Hate	112
Questions for Further Consideration	115
Chapter 7: Everywhere and Nowhere: Contemporary Victims Policy in Canada	117
Programs for Victims in Canada	117
Restorative Justice: More Than Just Another Alternative?	122
Final Comments	126
Questions for Further Consideration	128
Selected Internet Sources	129
References	131
Copyright Acknowledgments	143