Debating Social Rights

Conor Gearty
and Virginia Mantouvalou

• HART •
PUBLISHING

OXFORD AND PORTLAND, OREGON
2011

Contents

Series Editor's Preface v
Acknowledgements—Virginia Mantouvalou vii
Acknowledgements—Conor Gearty viii

Against Judicial Enforcement by Conor Gearty 1

I. Introduction 1
II. Why Care? 3
A. Doing What Comes Naturally 5
B. Committing to Human Rights 11
C. Rights, Principles and Values 15
D. Summing Up 20
III. How Should We Care? 21
A. The Rebirth of International Human Rights 23
B. Doing Human Rights 27
C. The Growing Lure of the Legal 33
D. The Lawyers' Bandwagon Gathers Pace 41
E. The Radical Potential of Rights-Talk 47
F. The Necessity of Politics 52
IV. How Can We Tame the Lawyers? 54
A. Delivering Rights 55
B. Challenging Law's Empire 57
C. The Bewitching Power of Orthodox Thinking 65
D. Answering the Sceptics 71
V. Conclusion 82

In Support of Legalisation by Virginia Mantouvalou 85

I. Introduction 85
II. A Brief, Unhappy History 90
III. Common Foundations 98

A. Dignity 99
B. Liberty 101
C. Citizenship: Rights and Belonging 105

IV. Legalisation 107

A. Conceptual Differences 109
B. The Role of Courts 116
C. The Role of Legislatures 130

V. Content of Duties and Horizontality 136

A. Legislative Determination 138
B. Judicial Determination 141
C. Horizontal Application 147

VI. Social Rights and the Foreign Needy 153

A. Duties to the Nearby Needy 154

B. Duties to the Distant Needy 161

VII. Conclusion 169

Bibliography 173

Index 179