Contents

1 The History of School Acts
   Johannes Westberg, Lukas Boser and Ingrid Brühwiler
   1

2 “Das Schulwesen aber ist und bleibt allezeit ein politicum”: The Felbiger General School Ordinance and School Reform in the Eighteenth-Century Habsburg Monarchy
   Martin Viehhauser
   17

3 Schooling and the Administrative State: Explaining the Lack of School Acts in Nineteenth-Century Prussia
   Marcelo Caruso and Daniel Töpper
   41

4 E Pluribus Unum: One Swiss School System Based on Many Cantonal School Acts
   Lukas Boser, Michèle Hofmann and Ingrid Brühwiler
   67
Contents

5 Education in a Nation Divided: The Contribution of School Acts to the Development of Dutch Mass Schooling in the Long Nineteenth Century 93
Jeroen J. H. Dekker, Hilda T. A. Amsing and Inge J. M. Wichgers

6 Good and Righteous People and Useful Citizens of the State: The Danish 1814 School Acts and the Rise of Mass Schooling in Denmark 119
Christian Larsen

7 Citizens in Their Right Place: Nation Building and Mass Schooling in Nineteenth-Century France 145
Sébastien-Akira Alix

8 School Acts and Elementary Education in Nineteenth-Century Spain 171
Núria Mallorquí-Ruscalleda

9 Basic Schools in Each and Every Parish: The School Act of 1842 and the Rise of Mass Schooling in Sweden 195
Johannes Westberg

10 A Struggling Nation Since Its Founding? Liberal Italy and the Cost of Neglecting Primary Education 223
Gabriele Cappelli

11 From the Top Down? Legislation and Public Initiative in Building a School System in Russia After the Great Reforms: 1855–1914 253
Ben Eklof

12 The Constitution of 1867, Separate Schooling, and the Roots of Division in Canadian Public Education 277
Anthony Di Mascio
13 The Elementary Education Act of 1870: Landmark or Transition?
David Mitch
301

14 "Hidden" Governance or Counterfactual Case? The US Failure to Pass a National Education Act, 1870–1940
Nancy Beadie
325

15 School Legislation, Mass Schooling, and Historiography
Daniel Tröhler
349

Index
373