Contents

Notes on contributors x

PART I
Introduction

Human rights in the digital domain – the idea of non-coherence theory
MART SUSI 3

PART II
Right to the internet and rights inside the internet – theoretical dimension 13

1 The sameness of human rights online and offline
MILCOON KOTHARI 15

2 Right of access to the internet – global approaches
CAROLINA AGUERRE 31

3 The right to privacy: The end of Privacy Fatalism
JONATHON PENNEY 44

4 Freedom of expression online
MATTHIAS C. KETTEMANN AND WOLFGANG BENEDEK 58

5 The digital disruption of human rights foundations
HIN-YAN LIU 75
PART III
Legislation, judicial and stakeholder practices – practical dimension

6 The main challenges related to protecting human rights in the internet
CHANGROK SOH, DANIEL CONNOLLY AND SEUNGHYUN NAM 89

7 Liability regimes for online human rights violations
STEN SCHAUMBURG-MÜLLER 103

8 Multistakeholderism – meaning and implications
JOANNA KULENSZA 117

9 Judicial balancing of human rights online
ORESTE POLICINO AND OLEG SOLDATOV 132

10 The role and practices of online stakeholders
THOMAS WISCHMEYER 148

11 The jurisprudence of the ECJ and ECtHR regarding data protection in the internet
CARSTEN M. WULFF 163

12 The Internet Balancing Formula
MART SUSI 178

PART IV
Specific issues related to human rights and the internet

13 Human rights and the right to be forgotten
UGO PAGALLO AND MASSIMO DURANTE 197

14 Finding a judicial definition of journalism: a challenging exercise in the digital age
ELLEN HOVLID 209

15 Combating hate speech online
JUKKA VIJANEN 225

16 European copyright and human rights in the digital sphere
CHRISTINA ANGELOPOULOS 239
17 Digital security and human rights: a plea for counter-infringement measures
MIREILLE HILDEBRANDT

PART V
Data protection issues

18 The challenge of personal data protection in the digital era and global responses
ALEXANDROS VARVERIS AND BERENIKI PANAGOPOULOU

19 Data protection in the private sector: convergence or localisation of rights and expectations?
W. SCOTT BLACKMER

20 The protection of personal data in a digital society: the role of the GDPR
TIINA PAJUSTE

PART VI
Global perspective

21 Africa, the internet and human rights
CH. POWELL AND TOBIAS SCHONWETTER

22 The approach of North American courts towards the internet
DAVID P. STEWART

23 Asian human rights law, jurisprudence and practices toward the internet
Satoshi Yokodaido

24 Latin American human rights law jurisprudence and practices toward the internet
Oscar Raul Puccinelli

25 The Russian perspective on human rights protection online
Dmitry Dedov

Index