Eradicating Human Trafficking: Culture, Law and Policy

By

Gabriela Curras DeBellis
Contents

Foreword xi
Acknowledgements xix

Introduction 1

1 Human Trafficking and Culture: A Fracture in the Justice System?
   Delimitation of the Problem 7
   1 Trafficking in Human Beings in Light of Culture 12
   2 Defining Culture 14
      A Case Study: The Culture of Trafficking in the United States 20
         i Migration in the Context of Labor Trafficking 21
         ii Sporting Events 28
         iii Culture of "Boys Will Be Boys" 32
         iv The Role of Pornography 33
      B Case Study: The Culture of Trafficking in India 40
         i Social Strata in the Midst of Culture 41
         ii Jogini: Cultural Bride or Servant Prostitute of the Gods 48
      C Case Study: The Culture of Trafficking in Costa Rica 50
         i Machismo: Grounds for Fostering a Culture of Abuse 52
         ii A Darker Side of Tourism 53

3 Culture and Globalization 57
   A Labor and Multinational Corporations 59
   B Organized Crime 61
   C Technology 63
   D Consumer Culture of Lust and Power 64
   E Cultural Dimensions of the Quality of Law 67

2 Viewpoints, Interests and Claims from a Global Perspective
   Conflicting Claims: Claimants, Perspectives, Identifications and their Bases of Power 81
   1 Government, Law Enforcement and Legal Community 81
   2 Corporations 85
   3 Traffickers 87
   4 Consumers of the Outcome of Trafficking: The Johns; Labor Exploiters; the Demand 90
   5 Victims 95
   6 NGOs, Nonprofit and Advocacy Groups 102
   7 Religion 105
3 Cultural Attitudes Amidst Human Trafficking Law & Policy
Identifying Past Trends in Authoritative and Controlling Decisions and their Conditioning Factors 114
1 Human Trafficking – International Framework 114
   A A Historical Look at Law-Making 114
   B Modern-Day Approach: The Palermo Protocol 117
2 Regional Protection against Human Trafficking 123
3 Domestic Prescriptions against Human Trafficking 128
   A Case Study: United States 128
      i Trafficking Legislation and Its Conditioning Factors 128
      ii Conditioning Factors Hampering the Effectiveness of Trafficking Legislation 135
   B Case Study: India 143
      i Trafficking Legislation and Its Conditioning Factors 143
      ii Conditioning Factors Hampering the Effectiveness of Trafficking Legislation 148
   C Case Study: Costa Rica 160
      i Trafficking Legislation and Its Conditioning Factors 160
      ii Conditioning Factors Hampering the Effectiveness of Trafficking Legislation 164

4 Battle Between Law and Culture Consent
Prediction of Future Decisions Based on the Changed and Changing Conditioning Factors 180
1 Forecasting the Future 180
   A Power Play: Impunity 181
   B Legislation: Enacting with Holistic Reason 183
   C Economics: Following a Trail 187
   D Religion: A Sleeping Giant Leadership 191
   E Cultural Attitudes: A Tacit and Dangerous Consent 196
      i Projections in the Context of the United States 197
      ii Projections in the Context of India 203
      iii Projections in the Context of Costa Rica 204
      iv Projections in the Context of Global Cultural Factors 205

5 Toward a Culture Shift: Upholding Dignity and Human Rights
Appraisal, Alternatives and Recommendations 212
1 A Common Thread: Corruption of the Human Being 212
   A Technology: Threat and Weapon 219
2 Pivotal Point: Change the Paradigm 224
CONTENTS

3 Agents of Change: Building a Culture 227
   A Transparency and Collaboration 228
   B Overcoming Vulnerability Barriers 231
   C Educating a New Generation of Humans 236
4 Media and Technology: Framework Shift 243
5 Conclusion: Justice and Dignity, A Cultural Balancing Act 246

Index 255