Incomplete International Investment Agreements
Problems, Causes and Solutions

Tae Jung Park
Assistant Professor, Department of Law, Incheon National University, Republic of Korea

ELGAR INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT LAW

Edward Elgar
Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA
Contents

Acknowledgments ix

1 Introduction to Incomplete International Investment Agreements 1
Overview of the provisions in IIAs 4
IIAs and FDI, and trade liberalization 4
Unnecessarily incomplete provisions in IIAs 4
Incomplete contract theory and the optimum level of IIAs 5
Costs of incomplete IIAs (undesirable effects) 6
Reasons for incomplete IIAs 7
Solutions to reduce incompleteness in IIAs 10

2 Overview of the provisions in IIAs 12
Investment 12
Protection and security 13
Fair and Equitable Treatment (FET) 15
Expropriation 17
Prohibition on performance requirement 19
Most Favored Nation (MFN) 20
National Treatment (NT) 21
Investor–State Dispute Settlement (ISDS) 23
Approaches to scheduling a reservation list 25

3 The relationship between IIAs, FDI, and trade liberalization 29
The role and effect of IIAs 29
The role of IIAs: investment protection and investment promotion 29
The effect of IIAs: a mixed result 31
FDI and trade liberalization 34
The relationship between FDI and trade liberalization: a positive relationship 34
A reason for a positive relationship: technology spillover 36

4 Unnecessarily incomplete provisions in IIAs 39
Definition of an unnecessarily incomplete IIA 39
Incomplete provisions in the main text 41
  Missing text 41
  Missing articles 43
Incomplete provisions in a reservation list 44
  Missing reservation list 44
  Missing or unspecified measures 45
Incomplete IIAs concluded by developing countries in Asia and exceptions to them 47
  Unnecessarily incomplete IIAs in developing countries in Asia 47
  Exceptions: are there any complete IIAs between developed countries? 50

5 Incomplete contract theory and the optimum level of IIAs 55
Background literature on law and economics approach to IIAs 55
Incomplete contract theory and optimum level of incomplete IIAs 58
  Reasons for incompleteness: transaction costs and bounded rationality 58
    Transaction costs 58
    Bounded rationality 60
Types of incompleteness 61
  Strategic incompleteness 62
  Inexorable incompleteness 62
  Efficient incompleteness 62
  Necessary incompleteness 63
  Ignorance 63
  Accidental incompleteness 63
Problems with incompleteness: opportunism and regret 64
  Opportunism 64
  Regret 65
Remedies for incompleteness 65
  Delegating gap-filling responsibilities to a third party 66
  Flexibility mechanism 66
Contents

Relational contracts 67
Comprehensive contracting 67
Optimum level of incomplete IIAs 68

6 The cost of incomplete provisions 73
Opportunities missed in attracting FDI and achieving trade liberalization 74
IIAs and investment targeting 74
Investment targeting and IPA 74
IIAs as a reflection of targeting 75
Missed opportunities 77
Unspecified measures 77
Missing measures 79
Missing articles or missing text 80
Missed opportunities to establish AELP 81
Law and development and AELP 81
Missed opportunities 86

Opportunistic behaviors associated with incomplete IIAs 91
Missing text 91
Missing article 92
Missing reservation list 93
Missing or unspecified measures 95

7 Reasons for incomplete provisions 97
Strong protectionism 97
Rationale behind protectionism: the infant industry argument 97
Protectionist motives: preference of legislative body for gradual market opening, lobbying, and ongoing legal reform 99
Preference of the legislative body for gradual market opening 100
Lobbying 105
Ongoing domestic legal reforms 108

Lack of institutional capacity 113
Failure in intra-government coordination and cooperation 113
Lack of legal and technical expertise 117
8 Solutions to incomplete provisions

Legal remedies

A choice between a side letter and a renegotiation clause

An exchange of a side letter

Background

Procedure followed in exchanging side letters

Advantages of a side letter

The insertion of a renegotiation clause

Background

Renegotiation procedure

Advantages of a renegotiation clause

Institutional remedies

Minimizing intra-government coordination failure: enabling better coordination and cooperation between line ministries

Upgrading legal expertise in IIAs

9 Conclusion to Incomplete International Investment Agreements

Index