

Invisible Crimes

Their Victims and their Regulation

Edited by

Pamela Davies

Peter Francis

Victor Jupp

all at the University of Northumbria at Newcastle

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Notes on the Contributors	viii
Part I The Nature of Invisible Crimes	1
1 The Features of Invisible Crimes Victor Jupp, Pamela Davies and Peter Francis	3
2 White-Collar Crime: an Overview and Discussion Hazel Croall	29
3 Crime and Work Connections: Exploring the 'Invisibility' of Workplace Crime Pamela Davies and Victor Jupp	54
Part II Types of Crimes and their Victims	75
4 Health and Safety Crimes: (In)visibility and the Problems of 'Knowing' Steve Tombs	77
5 Cybercrimes: New Wine, No Bottles? David Wall	105
Part III Regulation and Control	141
6 Regulating Fraud Revisited Michael Levi	143
7 Regulating the Invisible? The Case of Workplace Illicit Drug Use Peter Francis and Peter Wynarczyk	168
8 Watching the Workers: Crime, CCTV and the Workplace Michael McCahill and Clive Norris	208

9	Making Visible the Invisible? Peter Francis, Pamela Davies and Victor Jupp	232
	Index	246