

International Justice

Edited by

TONY COATES

Department of Politics

The University of Reading

Ashgate

Aldershot • Burlington USA • Singapore • Sydney

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
UK Association for Legal and Social Philosophy	viii
Introduction Tony Coates	1
SECTION 1: THE AUSTIN LECTURE	7
1 Is There a Right to Development? Brian Barry	9
SECTION 2: TRADITIONS OF THOUGHT AND INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE	25
2 Justice and International Order Chris Brown	27
3 International Justice and Just War Theory Tony Coates	46
SECTION 3: PRINCIPLES AND CONCEPTS OF INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE	63
4 Universalism, Particularism and Cosmopolitan Justice Michael Freeman	65
5 Cosmopolitan Communities Lukas H. Meyer	89
6 International Justice – Amongst Whom? Peter Jones	111

vi	International Justice
7	Global Equality of Opportunity and the Sovereignty of States Simon Caney	130
8	Global Justice as Impartiality: Whither Claims to Equal Shares? Andreas Føllesdal	150
9	Contractualism and the Moral Significance of Human Well-being Matt Matravers	167
	SECTION 4: SOME ISSUES AND PROBLEMS OF INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE	193
10	International Social Justice, Global Warming and Global Democracy Barry Holden	195
11	Slaughtering a Few Sacred Cows: Do We Really Oppose International Intervention? Avner de-Shalit	213
12	Justice and Fairness in the Battle Against Acid Rain Cecilia Albin	230
13	Restoring Justice in the Aftermath of Conflict: Bridging the Gap between Theory and Practice Rama Mani	264
	List of Contributors	300