

Why Our Drug Laws Have Failed ^{T-26} and What We Can Do About It

A JUDICIAL INDICTMENT

OF THE WAR ON DRUGS

Judge James P. Gray

Temple University Press
PHILADELPHIA

Contents

PART I: Introduction	1
PART II: Our Drug Laws Have Failed	17
1 Past and Present	19
An Historical Perspective	20
Emergence of the Prison-Industrial Complex	28
2 Increased Harm to Communities	47
Communities Awash in Illicit Drugs	48
Violence and Corruption	67
Domestic	67
Foreign	79
3 Erosion of Protections of the Bill of Rights	95
4 Increased Harm to Drug Users	123
Demonization	123
Deterioration of Health	126
5 Increased Harm for the Future	137
Conspiracy Theories	137
Government Policy: Don't Discuss It!	142

	PART III: Options	149
6	Increased Zero Tolerance	151
7	Education	165
8	Drug Treatment	181
	Rehabilitation	184
	Medicalization	190
	Needle Exchange Programs	190
	Drug Substitution Programs	194
	Drug Maintenance Programs	198
9	De-profitization of Drugs	211
	Legalization	211
	Decriminalization	217
	Regulated Distribution	222
10	Federalism, Not Federalization	231
	PART IV: What We Can Do About It	235
	Appendix A: Resolution	249
	Appendix B: Government Commission Reports and Other Public Inquiries	251
	Index	267