

PAULA C. JOHNSON

INNER LIVES

Voices of African American Women in Prison

With a Foreword by Joyce A. Logan

and an Afterword by Angela J. Davis

New York University Press • New York and London

Contents

Foreword by Joyce A. Logan	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	1
I Analysis of African American Women's Experiences in the U.S. Criminal Justice System	19
II Profiles and Narratives of African American Women in the U.S. Criminal Justice System	51
A Currently Incarcerated Women	55
1 DonAlda	57
2 Cynthia	64
3 Mamie	78
4 Elizabeth	89
5 Rae Ann	96
6 Donna	107
7 Martha	116
8 Marilyn	124
B Formerly Incarcerated Women	131
9 Bettie Gibson	133
10 Joyce Ann Brown	142
11 Betty Tyson	158

12	Karen Michelle Blakney	167
13	Ida P. McCray	175
14	Millicent Pierce	183
15	Joyce A. Logan	190
16	Donna Hubbard Spearman	195
C	Criminal Justice Officials and Support Networks	205
17	Judge Juanita Bing Newton	207
18	Assistant Warden Gerald Clay	220
19	Grace House Administrators: Rochelle Bowles, Mary Dolan, Annie González, and Kathy Nolan	227
20	Sandra Barnhill, Director, Aid to Children of Imprisoned Mothers (AIM)	237
21	Rhodesa Jones, Director, Medea Theater Project	243
22	Professor Brenda V. Smith	252
23	A Family Story: Renay, Judy, Debbie, and Kito	261
III	Conclusions and Recommendations	273
	Afterword by Angela J. Davis	285
	Appendix A: Self-Study Course on African American Women's History	289
	Appendix B: Resource Directory	293
	Notes	305
	Bibliography	325
	Index	335
	About the Author	339