

Rethinking Corporate Crime

James Gobert

Professor of Law, University of Essex

Maurice Punch

Visiting Professor, Mannhiem Centre, London School of Economics

Butterworths
LexisNexis™

Contents

Preface v

Table of statutes xv

List of cases xix

Chapter 1 Understanding the nature and causes of corporate crime 1

A. White-collar and corporate crime 1

B. An overview of the literature 3

1. The formative years 3

2. New directions in research 6

3. What have we learned? 8

C. Building the foundations 11

D. The roots of corporate criminality 14

1. Social, economic and cultural factors 15

2. The nature and structure of organisations 17

3. Intent, rationality and competence 18

4. Defence mechanisms and techniques of dissociation 21

5. Crime-facilitative and crime-coercive industries 23

6. Conclusions 25

E. Parameters and case studies 26

1. Waste disposal and the TCR case: a magnet for criminals 27

2. Road transport and the Roy Bowles case: eyes wide shut to danger 28

3. Guinness: a conspiracy of high flyers 30

4. The Southall rail crash: human error and systemic failure in a world of deregulation 31

F. Preview: corporate crime and the law 35

Chapter 2 Corporate criminality I: Imputed liability 42

A. Introduction 42

B. Companies and the criminal law 46

1. Are companies fit subjects for the criminal law? 46

- 2. Is corporate criminal liability needed? 50
- C. Corporate criminal liability: the formative stages 53
- D. Vicarious corporate criminal liability 55
- E. The 'identification' doctrine 59
- F. Rethinking the basis of imputed corporate criminal liability: the company as accessory 70
- G. Conclusions 75

Chapter 3 Corporate criminality II: Organisational fault 78

- A. The picture so far 78
- B. Aggregated fault 82
- C. Organisational fault 86
  - 1. Mens rea 87
    - a. Intention 87
    - b. Knowledge 89
    - c. Recklessness 90
    - d. Gross negligence 92
    - e. Negligence and strict liability 94
  - 2. Actus reus 97
- D. A defence of due diligence 100
- E. Legislative models 102
  - 1. An offence of corporate killing 103
  - 2. Lessons from Italy 108
- F. Conclusions 113

Chapter 4 Corporate criminality III: Endangerment offences 115

- A. Introduction 115
- B. The relevance of results in criminal law 116
- C. Results and corporate crime 123
  - 1. The assessment of risk 124
  - 2. A matter of timing 127
- D. Regulatory offences 129
- E. Endangerment offences 131
- F. Remedial orders and other sanctions 136
- G. Accessories to endangerment 138
- H. The continuing relevance of harm 140
  - 1. Criminalisation 141
  - 2. Investigations 141
  - 3. Prosecutorial discretion 142
  - 4. Evidence 143
  - 5. Sentencing 143
- I. Conclusions 144

Chapter 5 Corporate crime in an era of globalisation	146
A. The nature of the problem	146
B. Liability of a parent company for crimes of its subsidiaries	150
1. Vicarious liability	151
2. Complicity	153
3. Conspiracy	155
C. Prosecutions in the host state of the subsidiary	156
1. Prosecuting a parent company, its directors and its officers in the host state	157
2. Prosecuting the subsidiary in the host state	160
D. Prosecutions in an international forum	162
1. Prosecuting an MNE or its subsidiary in an international criminal forum	163
2. Holding states accountable for human rights abuses perpetrated by MNEs	166
E. Prosecuting a parent company in its home state	169
1. Jurisdiction	169
a. The 'active personality' principle	169
b. Universal jurisdiction	170
2. A violation of home state law?	172
F. Conclusions	178
Chapter 6 When a company is on trial: Rules of evidence and procedure	179
A. Introduction	179
B. The choice of trier of fact: are juries appropriate?	182
1. The Roskill Report	182
2. The Auld Report	186
3. 'Justice for All'	187
4. Crimes of corporate violence	189
C. Rules of evidence	191
1. The hearsay rule and documentary evidence	191
2. The privilege against self-incrimination/right to silence	196
D. The burden and standard of proof	200
E. Due diligence	204
1. The due diligence defence under English law	205
2. Due diligence in Italy and the United States	208
F. The impact of the Human Rights Act 1998	210
G. Conclusion	213
Chapter 7 Sentencing and sanctions	214
A. Introduction	214
B. Theory	216
1. Theories of punishment	216

- 2. The applicability of the theories to companies 219
- C. an arsenal of sanctions 221
  - 1. Fines and monetary sanctions 221
    - a. The case for monetary sanctions 221
    - b. Determining the amount of a fine – the Howe criteria 225
    - c. Differential fines 228
    - d. Are fines really the answer? 231
  - 2. Community service orders 233
  - 3. Reputation-orientated sanctions 236
  - 4. Restraint-orientated sanctions 239
  - 5. Remedial orders 242
- D. An inclusive package of sanctions 245
  - 1. The Council of Europe recommendations 245
  - 2. The federal guidelines for organisational offenders 247
- E. Procedures in sentencing 250
- F. Conclusions 252

Chapter 8 Individual liability 253

- A. Introduction: structural complexity 253
- B. Liability of ordinary employees 258
- C. Liability of senior supervisory personnel 263
- D. Liability of directors and officers 267
  - 1. Legal responsibility 268
  - 2. Sanctions 273
    - a. Imprisonment 274
    - b. Disqualification 278
    - c. Community service 280
    - d. Combinative sanctions 281
- E. Conclusions: individual and organisation 281

Chapter 9 Policing' companies: Dilemmas of regulation 283

- A. Introduction and historical background 283
- B. Regulatory agencies 286
  - 1. Public, private and self-appointed regulators: an overview 288
  - 2. The role of the government 290
- C. Compliance and deterrence strategies 292
- D. Inspectorates and special investigatory agencies 296
  - 1. A conventional inspectorate: the Health and Safety Executive 296
  - 2. A special inter-disciplinary, investigatory agency: the Serious Fraud Office 301
- E. The role of the police 303
- F. Regulation in the United States 305
  - 1. The Food and Drug Administration 306
  - 2. The Securities and Exchange Commission 309

- G. the Financial Services Authority 312
- H. Conclusions 314

Chapter 10 Self-regulation and the socially responsible company 315

- A. Introduction 315
- B. Collective self-regulation 316
- C. Individualised self-regulation 322
  - 1. Advantages 322
  - 2. A model 324
  - 3. In the event of a violation 326
  - 4. Pitfalls 329
  - 5. Legal and other effects 332
- D. Corporate governance and self-regulation 336
- E. Beyond compliance: the socially responsible company 342

Bibliography 347

Index 369