

RICHARD MAGNUS, LIM HUI MIN, MAY LUCIA MESENAS & VALERIE THEAN (eds.)

Joint publication by the Subordinate Courts &
Ministry of Community Development and Sports

REBUILDING LIVES, RESTORING RELATIONSHIPS

Juvenile Justice and the Community

EASTERN UNIVERSITIES PRESS

Contents

Editorial Committee	viii
Foreword	ix
Introduction	x
PART I: RESTORATIVE JUSTICE — THE COURT'S PERSPECTIVE — PRINCIPLES, PROCEDURES AND PROGRAMMES	1
Chapter 1	3
The Juvenile Court of Singapore Magistrate May Lucia Mesenas, and Magistrate Lim Hui Min
Chapter 2	45
The Family and Juvenile Justice Centre
2.1 The Family and Juvenile Justice Centre Dr Joseph Paul Ozawa, Senior Director, Family and Juvenile Justice Centre	45
2.2 Family Conferences — Three Illustrations	63
Chapter 3	73
Case Law and Case Studies Magistrate May Lucia Mesenas, Magistrate Ong Chin Heng and District Judge Mark Tay
3.1 Offences Committed by Juveniles	73
3.2 Legal Issues Arising in Juvenile Cases	115
Chapter 4	147
Voices from the Court
4.1 Thoughts of a Juvenile Court Magistrate Magistrate May Lucia Mesenas	147
4.2 Reflections of a Panel Adviser Dr Anthony V H Lob	152
4.3 Volunteering as a Youth Family Care Parent Mr Loganswaran Ramoo as narrated to Ms Carol Balhetchet, Director, Youth Development Centre, Singapore Children's Society	156
4.4 Perspectives through Poetry	158

PART II: REBUILDING LIVES: THE COMMUNITY'S PERSPECTIVE — EMBRACING TROUBLED YOUTHS AND RESTORING THEM TO THE COMMUNITY	163
Chapter 5	165
Community Initiatives and Programmes — Early Intervention, Prevention and Rehabilitation
5.1 The National Response to Youth Crime Associate Professor Ho Peng Kee, Senior Minister of State for Law and Home Affairs, and Chairman of the Inter-Ministry Committee on Youth Crime	165
5.2 Rebuilding Lives and Restoring Troubled Youths to the Community — the Malay/Muslim Community's Response Mr Abdul Halim Aliman, Director, Community Development, Yayasan Mendaki, and Panel Adviser of the Juvenile Court	171
5.3 Reducing Juvenile Delinquency through Community Involvement: Community Partnerships with the Singapore Police Force ASP Marc E Kwan Szer, Operations Officer, Community Involvement Division, Operations Department, Police Headquarters	177
5.4 Preventing Juvenile Delinquency in Children at Risk Ms Ng Bee Leng, Deputy Executive Director, BEYOND Social Services, and Head, Bukit Ho Swee Family Service Centre	185
5.5 Being There for the Children Mr Alfred Tan, Executive Director, Singapore Children's Society	192
5.6 Addressing Discipline in the School System Mrs Tan-Kek Lee Yōng, Deputy Director, Psychological and Guidance Services, Ministry of Education	195
5.7 Coming to School to Succeed Mrs Yeo Chin Nam, Principal, Henderson Secondary School	200
5.8 Working with Students in the Peer Mediation Programme — the Bedok North Experience Mrs Tan Ai-Lin, Head of Department (Discipline), Bedok North Secondary School	209

5.9	Operation NightWatch — Watching Over Juvenile Offenders in the Community Ms Chomil Kamal, Chief Probation Officer, Probation Services Branch, Ministry of Community Development and Sports	212
5.10	The Guidance Programme Ms Corinne Kob, Deputy Director, Family and Child Protection and Welfare Branch, Ministry of Community Development and Sports	216
5.11	The Residential Rehabilitation Branch Ms Ng Pob Leng, Deputy Director, Residential and Rehabilitation Branch, Rehabilitation and Protection Division, Ministry of Community Development and Sports	220
	Chapter 6	239
	Stories from the Community
6.1	Grown-ups Speaking	239
6.1.1	Making a Difference — a Teacher’s Perspective Mr Teo Heok Khiang, Discipline Master, Damai Secondary School	239
6.1.2	Rehabilitation through Probation — The Work of a Probation Officer Ms Bernadette Alexander, Assistant Director (Operations/Youth), Ministry of Community Development and Sports	242
6.1.3	Rehabilitation through Reformatory Training — The Work of an Aftercare Officer Ms Dablia Aris and Ms Gob Sok Hoon, Aftercare Supervision Officers, Prisons Department	245
6.1.4	Bringing Parents and their Children Together — The Work of a Guidance Programme Counsellor Ms Carol Balhetchet, Director, Youth Development Centre, Singapore Children’s Society	250
6.1.5	Protecting Children from Abuse — The Work of a Child Protection Officer Ms Ngo Lee Yian, Senior Assistant Director (Child Protection), Child Protection and Welfare Service, Ministry of Community Development and Sports	257

6.2	Voices of the Children	261
6.2.1	Hard Lessons, Good Teachers	262
6.2.2	Finding a Home in Gracehaven	264
6.2.3	Learning to Study at the Singapore Boys' Hostel	265
6.2.4	Life in the Singapore Boys' Home – and Life After	268
6.2.5	Life at the Toa Payoh Girls' Home – and Life After	272
6.2.6	A New Beginning – the Care Centre in School	276
6.2.7	My Experience as a Peer Mediator	278
6.2.8	Learning to do Peer Mediation	279

PART III: BUILDING BRIDGES:
THE INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVE —
DEALING WITH TROUBLED YOUTHS
IN THE GLOBAL VILLAGE 283

Chapter 7		285
	Restorative Justice and Juvenile Justice — A Comparison of the Singapore and New Zealand Experience Chief District Judge, D J Carruthers

Chapter 8		304
	Restorative Justice: International Approaches Dr Willie McCaurney

Chapter 9		349
	Community Intervention and Intermediate Sanctions with Juvenile Offenders: Perspectives and Practices in America Dr David M Altschuler

Appendix A		377
	List of Child and Family Services
I.	Approved Homes/Approved Schools/Approved Institutions/Places of Safety/Other Institutions
II.	General
III.	Family Service Centres
IV.	Student Care Centres

Appendix B		409
	Reading List on Issues Related to Juvenile Justice

Index		411
--------------	--	------------