

Street on Torts

Eleventh Edition

John Murphy LLB, LLM

Senior Lecturer in Law
at the University of Manchester

LexisNexis™ UK

Contents

Preface v
Abbreviations xxvii
Table of statutes xxix
Table of cases xxxv

Part I

Introduction

Chapter 1

The law of torts 3

Section 1. What is a tort? 3
Section 2. Human rights and protected interests 5
 (A) The Human Rights Act 1998 5
 (B) Interests protected by the law of torts 8
 (1) Intentional invasion of personal and proprietary interests 9
 (2) Interests in economic relations, business and trading interests 9
 (3) Interests in intellectual property 9
 (4) Negligent interference with personal, proprietary and economic interests 9
 (5) Further protection of personal and proprietary interests 10
 (6) Reputation 10
 (7) Due process 10
 (8) Miscellaneous interests: 'convention rights' and European Community law rights 11
Section 3. Theoretical perspectives on the law of torts 12
 (A) A law of tort or a law of torts? 13

- (B) Wrongfulness in tort law 13
- (C) 'Ghosts from the past': forms of action 14
- (D) Conflict between certainty and justice 15
- (E) Loss distribution, deterrence and economic analysis 15
- (F) The judges and laissez-faire 17
- (G) Limits on the effectiveness of tort law 17

Section 4. Tort and other branches of law 18

Part II

Intentional invasions of interests in person and property

Chapter 2

Intentional torts today 23

- Section 1. Trespass and negligence 23
- Section 2. Intention and trespass 26
- Section 3. Relevance of trespass today 27

Chapter 3

Trespass to the person and related torts 31

- Section 1. Introduction 31
- Section 2. Battery 31
 - (A) Defendant's state of mind 32
 - (B) No consent by the claimant 34
 - (C) The character of the defendant's act 34
 - (D) Damages 36
- Section 3. Assault 36
 - (A) The character of the defendant's conduct 36
- Section 4. Intentional physical harm other than trespass to person 38
- Section 5. False imprisonment 40
 - (A) State of mind 41
 - (B) Character of the Act 41
 - (C) Knowledge of the claimant 44
 - (D) Who is liable for a false imprisonment? 44
 - (E) Damages 45
- Section 6. Other forms of compensation 46

Chapter 4

Wrongful interference with goods 47

- Section 1. Introduction 47
- Section 2. Conversion 49
 - (A) Interest of the claimant 49
 - (1) Bailment 49
 - (2) Lien and pledge 51
 - (3) Sale 51
 - (4) Licensee 52
 - (5) Finder 52
 - (6) Jus tertii (third party rights) 53
 - (B) The subject matter 54
 - (C) Defendant's state of mind 55
 - (D) Acts of conversion 55
 - (1) Taking goods or dispossessing 56
 - (2) Destroying or altering 56
 - (3) Using 57
 - (4) Receipt, disposition and delivery 57
 - (5) Misdelivery by carrier 58
 - (6) Refusal to surrender on demand 58
 - (7) Goods lost or destroyed 59
 - (8) Residual acts amounting to a conversion 60
 - (E) Conversion as between co-owners 60
 - (F) Damages 61
 - (G) Other remedies 65
- Section 3. Trespass to goods 66
 - (A) Forms of trespass 66
 - (B) Character of the defendant's act 67
 - (C) Defendant's state of mind 67
 - (D) The interest of the claimant 68
 - (E) Damages 69
 - (1) Measure 69
 - (2) Trespass ab initio 70
- Section 4. Residual torts 70

Chapter 5

Trespass to land 73

- Section 1. Trespass 73
 - (A) Types of act that constitute trespass 73
 - (B) What may constitute the subject matter of an action? 76
 - (C) Defendant's state of mind 77

(D) Who may sue?	77
Section 2. Remedies	80
(A) Damages	80
(B) Injunctions	81
(C) Recovery of land	82
Section 3. Defences	82
(A) Justification	82
(B) Licence	83

Chapter 6

Defences to the intentional torts 85

Section 1. Mistake and inevitable accident	85
Section 2. Consent	86
(A) General	86
(B) Consent to medical treatment	88
Section 3. Contributory negligence	90
Section 4. Self-defence	91
Section 5. Defence of another person	92
Section 6. Defence of one's property	92
Section 7. Defence of another's property	94
Section 8. Preventing crime	94
Section 9. Necessity	94
(A) Distinguished from defence of property	94
(B) Scope	94
Section 10. The Mental Health Acts	96
Section 11. Discipline	96
(A) Children	97
(1) By parents	97
(2) By schoolteachers and others responsible for their children or for their training and education	97
(B) Passengers in public transport	98
Section 12. Arrest, search and seizure	98
(A) Arrest	98
(1) By a policeman with a warrant	98
(2) Arrest without warrant	99
(B) Reasonable cause	100
(C) Manner of arrest	101
(D) Entry, search and seizure	102
Section 13. Judicial acts	103
Section 14. Statutory authority	104
Section 15. Acts connected with parliamentary proceedings	104
Section 16. Executive acts	105
(A) Act of state	105

- (B) Prerogative 105
- Section 17. An act which is also a crime 105
 - (A) Assault and battery 105
- Section 18. Claimant a wrongdoer 106
- Section 19. Self-help remedies 109

Part III

Intentional interference with economic interests

Chapter 7

Interference with economic interests 113

- Section 1. Rights and economic interests 113
- Section 2. Free competition, unfair competition 115
- Section 3. Economic loss and negligence 116
- Section 4. Economic torts and economic regulation 118

Chapter 8

False representations 119

- Section 1. Deceit 119
 - (A) False representation 120
 - (B) Knowledge of falsity 121
 - (C) Intention to deceive 121
 - (D) Reliance of the claimant 122
 - (E) Loss 124
 - (F) Agency 124
 - (G) Statute of Frauds Amendment Act 1828 126
 - (H) Misrepresentation Act 1967 126
- Section 2. Passing off 127
 - (A) Misrepresentation 128
 - (1) Kinds of misrepresentation 128
 - (2) Representation must be likely to deceive the claimant's customers 133
 - (3) Representation in the course of a trade 134
 - (B) Goodwill 135
 - (C) Damage 136
 - (D) Defences 137
 - (E) Remedies 137
 - (1) Injunction 137

- (2) Damages 137
- (F) Unfair trading and passing off 138
- Section 3. Malicious falsehood 138
 - (A) Interests protected 138
 - (B) Disparagement 140
 - (C) False statement 141
 - (D) Publication 141
 - (E) Malice 141
 - (F) Damage 142
 - (G) Defences 143
 - (H) Malicious falsehood and defamation 144

Chapter 9

Interference with contract or trade 145

- Section 1. Conspiracy 146
 - (A) Combination 146
 - (B) The purpose of the defendants 147
 - (C) Justification 149
- Section 2. Interference with an existing contract 150
 - (A) Origins of the tort: directly inducing a breach of contract 150
 - (1) Kinds of contract 151
 - (2) Kinds of breach 151
 - (3) Knowledge of the contract 153
 - (B) The wider tort: interference with an existing contract 153
 - (1) Direct persuasion or procurement 154
 - (2) Direct intervention 154
 - (3) Indirect procurement 155
 - (4) Inconsistent dealings 156
 - (5) Defendant's state of mind 157
 - (6) Damage 158
 - (7) Justification 158
 - (C) Inducing breaches of other obligations 159
 - (D) Remedies 160
 - (1) Damages 160
 - (2) Injunction 161
- Section 3. Intimidation 161
 - A Introduction 161
 - B Unlawful threats 162
- Section 4: Unlawful interference with trade 163
 - (A) The interests protected 164
 - (B) Unlawful means 164
 - (C) Two-party cases 166
 - (D) Justification 166
- Section 5. Economic torts and trade unions 167

*Chapter 10Intellectual property interests 169

Section 1. Copyright, patents and similar interests 169

Section 2. Breach of confidence 170

(A) The obligation of confidentiality 170

(B) Justifiable disclosures 172

(C) Remedies 173

*Part IVNegligent invasions of interests in person and property and economic interestsChapter 11Duty of care I: foundational principles 177

Section 1. Introduction 177

Section 2. The emergence of a general test 178

Section 3. The rise and fall of Anns 179

Section 4. Modern approaches to the duty of care 186

(A) The Caparo Test 186

(1) The foreseeable claimant 187

(2) Proximity 188

(3) Fair, just and reasonable 194

(B) Incrementalism 198

(C) Assumption of responsibility 199

Section 5. Public authorities and the duty of care 200

(A) General principles 200

(B) Public functions and the duty of care 201

(1) Justiciability: historical précis 202

(2) The modern approach 204

Section 6. Duties in tort and contract 210

*Chapter 12Duty of care II: recognised harm 215

Section 1. Introduction 215

Section 2. Harm to persons 216

(A) Duty to the unborn 216

- (B) A duty to rescuers? 218
- (C) Liability for psychiatric harm 218
- Section 3. Policy issues and harm to the person 226
- Section 3. Damage to property 228
- Section 4. 'Pure' economic loss 231
 - (A) Statements and 'special relationships' 232
 - (B) The extended Hedley Byrne principle 237
 - (C) Beyond Hedley Byrne 242

Chapter 13

Breach of duty 247

- Section 1. The standard of care 247
- Section 2: Factors relevant to establishing the required standard 248
 - (A) Factors extraneous to the defendant 248
 - (1) The likelihood of harm 248
 - (2) The magnitude of harm 249
 - (3) The social utility of the defendant's act 249
 - (4) Emergencies 251
 - (5) The relative cost of avoiding the harm 252
 - (6) The 'hurly burly of life' 253
 - (7) General practice of the community 253
 - (B) Factors pertaining to the defendant 254
 - (1) Child defendants 255
 - (2) Intelligence and knowledge 256
 - (3) Skill 257
 - (4) Disability and infirmity? 259
 - (5) Special knowledge concerning the claimant 260
 - (6) Foreseeable acts of third parties 261
- Section 3 The connection between standard and duty of care 261
- Section 4 Professional negligence 263
 - (A) The background 263
 - (B) Duty and breach 264
 - (C) The reasonable 'professional' 265
- Section 5. Breach of an employer's duty to his employees 266
 - (A) A personal, non-delegable duty 267
 - (B) The provision of competent staff 269
 - (C) Adequate premises and plant 269
 - (D) A proper system of working 270
- Section 6. Proving negligence 272
 - (A) Law and fact 272
 - (B) Onus of proof 273
 - (1) Res ipsa loquitur 274
 - (2) Civil Evidence Act 1968, s 11 280

Chapter 14Causation 281

Section 1. Causation in fact 282

- (A) The 'but-for' test 282
- (B) Evidence of causation 283
- (C) Cases of evidential uncertainty 283
 - (1) Cases involving the 'loss of a chance' 283
 - (2) The material contribution to harm principle 286
 - (3) The material contribution to the risk of harm principle 287
 - (4) The material contribution to the risk of harm among several wrongdoers principle? 288
 - (5) The one among several causative agents principle 292
- (D) Concurrent tortious causes 293

Section 2. Relationship between causation and breach of duty 294

Section 3. New intervening causes: causation in law 294

- (A) Intervening natural causes 296
- (B) Claimant's own conduct 296
- (C) Acts of third parties 297

Section 4. Remoteness of damage 299

- (A) The Wagon Mound 300
- (B) Foreseeable type of harm 300
- (C) The means by which the harm was caused 301
- (D) Extent of the damage 303
- (E) The 'egg-shell skull' rule 304

Chapter 15Defences to negligence 307

Section 1. Contributory negligence 307

- (A) Risk 308
- (B) That the claimant's 'negligence' was a contributory factor 308
- (C) The negligence of the claimant 312
- (D) The scope of the Law Reform (Contributory Negligence) Act 1945 315
- (E) Apportionment of damages 318

Section 2. Voluntary assumption of risk 320

- (A) Is assumption of risk properly regarded as a defence? 320
- (B) Illustrations of when the claimant is deemed to have assumed the risk 322
 - (1) Suits by employees against employers 322
 - (2) Drunken pilots/drunken drivers 324
 - (3) Dangerous activities 326
- (C) Voluntary act 327

Section 3. Excluding liability 329

Chapter 16

Liability for defective premises and structures 331

Section 1. Occupiers' liability 331

- (A) Liability to visitors: the Occupiers' Liability Act 1957 332
 - (1) Who is an occupier? 332
 - (2) Scope of the Act 333
 - (3) The common duty of care 338
 - (4) Some special cases within the Occupiers' Liability Act 1957 344
 - (5) Exclusion of liability 347
- (B) Liability to non-visitors: the Occupiers' Liability Act 1984 349
- (C) Common law liability and activities on land 353
- (D) Liability to those outside the premises 355

Section 2. Liability of non-occupiers 356

- (A) The Defective Premises Act 1972 357
- (B) Builders and contractors: physical damage 358
- (C) Builders and contractors: other loss 359
- (D) Professional advisers 362
- (E) Local authorities 362
- (F) Landlords 363

Part V

Invasions of interests in person and property where intentional or negligent conduct need not always be proved

Chapter 17

Product liability 367

Section 2. Consumer protection and the changing common law 368

- (A) The limitations of contract law 368
- (B) The action for negligence 369
 - (1) The narrow rule in Donoghue v Stevenson – defective products 371
 - (2) Range of defendants 371
 - (3) Products 372
 - (4) Ultimate 'consumer' 372
 - (5) Sale 373
 - (6) Intermediate examination 373
 - (7) Preparation or putting up 374
 - (8) Continuing duty of care 374
 - (9) Recoverable loss 374
 - (10) Proving negligence 375

- (11) Proving causation 377
- (C) Action for breach of statutory duty 377
- Section 3. The strict liability regime 378
 - (A) The Consumer Protection Act 1987 378
 - (B) Who can sue under the Act? 379
 - (C) On whom is strict liability imposed? 379
 - (D) Products 380
 - (E) Defining 'defect' 381
 - (F) General defences 383
 - (G) The 'development risks' defence 384
 - (H) Causation 385
 - (I) Limitation 386

Chapter 18

Nuisance 387

- Section 1. Nuisance as a separate tort 387
 - (A) Scope of the law of nuisance 387
 - (B) Nuisance and environmental law 389
 - (C) Nuisance and other torts 391
- Section 2. The basis of nuisance liability 393
 - (A) Substantial interference 393
 - (1) Interference with the use or enjoyment of land 393
 - (2) Material damage to land 397
 - (3) Interference with servitudes 398
 - (B) Unreasonableness 399
 - (1) The seriousness of the interference 399
 - (2) Reasonable user of the defendant's land 402
- Section 3. Who can sue? 408
 - (A) Owners and resident occupiers 408
 - (B) Reversioners 409
 - (C) Claimants suffering personal injuries, damage to chattels or economic loss 410
- Section 4. Who can be sued? 411
 - (A) Creators 411
 - (B) Occupiers 413
 - (1) Acts of a trespasser 413
 - (2) Acts of nature 414
 - (3) Nuisances created by independent contractors 415
 - (4) Acts of a previous occupier 415
 - (C) Landlords 415
- Section 5. Must the interference emanate from the defendant's land? 417
- Section 6. Defences 417
 - (A) Statutory authority 417
 - (B) Prescription 418
 - (C) The claimant's conduct 419

- (D) Other defences 420
- Section 7. Remedies 420
 - (A) Damages 420
 - (B) Injunction 422
- Section 8. Public nuisance 423
 - (A) Nature of public nuisance 423
 - (1) The relator action 423
 - (2) Local authority applications 424
 - (3) Civil actions for 'special damage' 424
 - (B) The relationship between public nuisance and private nuisance 426
 - (C) Remedies in public nuisance 428
 - (1) Injunction 428
 - (2) Damages 428

Chapter 19

Rylands v Fletcher 431

- Section 1. Introduction 431
- Section 2. 'Things' within the rule 433
- Section 3. Parties 435
 - (A) Who may be sued? 435
 - (B) Who may sue? 437
- Section 4. The non-natural use of land 439
- Section 5. Escape 441
- Section 6. Foreseeability of harm 442
- Section 7. Defences 443
 - (A) Statutory authority 443
 - (B) Consent of the claimant 444
 - (C) Contributory negligence 445
 - (D) Act of third parties: Rylands v Fletcher or negligence? 445
 - (E) Act of God 447
 - (F) Necessity 448
- Section 8. Nuisance and Rylands v Fletcher 448

Chapter 20

Animals 451

- Section 1. Negligence and strict liability 451
- Section 2. Damage done by dangerous animals 451
 - (A) Dangerous species 451
 - (B) Non-dangerous species 452
 - (C) Liability for either kind of dangerous animal 453
- Section 3. Liability for straying livestock 454
- Section 4. Liability for injury done by dogs to livestock 455

*Chapter 21Breach of statutory duty 457

- Section 1. Introduction 457
- Section 2. Elusive Parliamentary intent 459
- Section 3. The nature of the action 463
- (A) Breach of statutory duty simpliciter 463
 - (B) The common law duty of care 463
 - (C) The careless performance of a statutory duty 464
- Section 4. What the claimant must prove 464
- (A) An obligation on the defendant 464
 - (B) The statute must impose the burden on the defendant 464
 - (C) The statute protects the claimant's interest by way of a cause of action in tort 465
 - (1) The state of the pre-existing common law 465
 - (2) Alternative remedies provided by statute 466
 - (3) Public and private rights 467
 - (D) The harm suffered by him is within the scope of the general class of risks at which the statute is directed 468
 - (E) The claimant was one of the persons protected by the statute 469
 - (F) When damage must be proved 469
 - (G) The conduct of the defendant was of such a character as to violate the statute 469
 - (H) Causation 470
- Section 5. European legislation: the analogous action 470
- Section 6. Defences 471
- (A) The relation between criminal and tortious liability 471
 - (B) Assumption of risk 472
 - (C) Contributory negligence 472
 - (D) Act of a third party 473
 - (E) Ex turpi causa 473

*Part VIInterests in reputation – defamationChapter 22Defamation: foundational principles 477

- Section 1. Introduction 477
- (A) Background issues 477
- Section 2. Elements of defamation 481
- (A) The meaning of defamatory 481
 - (1) Injury to reputation 481

- (2) Who may be defamed 484
- (3) The interpretation of defamatory statements 484
- (4) Immateriality of the defendant's knowledge 489
- (B) Reference to the claimant 489
 - (1) Class libels 490
 - (2) Unintentional references to the claimant 490
- (C) 'Malicious' publication 491
- Section 3. Distinguishing libel and slander 494
 - (A) Criteria for distinguishing libel from slander 494
 - (B) Juridical differences between libel and slander 495
 - (C) Exceptional cases where slander is actionable per se 495
 - (1) Imputation of crime 495
 - (2) Imputation of certain types of disease 497
 - (3) Slander in respect of office, profession, calling, trade or business 497
 - (4) Imputation of the unchastity of a woman 498
 - (D) Special damage and remoteness of damage 498

Chapter 23

Defences and remedies in defamation 501

- Section 1. Consent and assumption of risk 501
- Section 2. Justification 502
- Section 3. Innocent disseminators 505
 - (A) Innocent publication: the common law 505
 - (B) Defamation Act 1996, s 1 506
 - (C) Offer of amends: Defamation Act 1996, ss 2-4 507
- Section 4. Absolute privilege 508
 - (A) Parliamentary proceedings 508
 - (B) Executive matters 509
 - (C) Judicial proceedings 510
 - (D) Solicitor-client communications 512
 - (E) Reports of judicial proceedings 513
- Section 5. Qualified privilege 513
 - (A) Malice 514
 - (1) Establishing malice 514
 - (2) Judge and jury and the burden of proof in respect of malice 516
 - (3) Excess of privilege and malice 517
 - (4) Joint publishers and malice 518
 - (B) Instances of qualified privilege 518
 - (1) General principle 518
 - (2) Privileged reports 519
 - (3) Statements to protect an interest 521
 - (4) Statements in pursuance of a legal, social or moral duty 523
- Section 6. Fair comment 526
 - (A) Matters of public interest 526

- (B) Comment on true facts 527
 - (C) Comment must be honest and not actuated by malice 529
 - (D) Burden of proof and the functions of judge and jury 531
 - (E) Similarity between fair comment and qualified privilege 531
- Section 7. Apology 531
- Section 8. Remedies 532
- (A) Damages 532
 - (B) Injunctions 534

Part VII

Misuse of process

Chapter 24

Misuse of process 539

- Section 1. Malicious prosecution and related claims 539
- (A) Institution of proceedings 540
 - (B) Nature of proceedings 541
 - (C) Termination in favour of claimant 542
 - (D) Absence of reasonable and probable cause 542
 - (E) Malice: improper purpose 544
 - (F) The Crown Prosecution Service 545
 - (G) Defences 546
- Section 2. Abuse of process 546
- Section 3. Witness immunity 546
- Section 4. Misfeasance in public office 547

Part VIII

Remedies and parties

Chapter 25

Vicarious liability 551

- Section 1. Importance of the distinction between employees and independent contractors 551
- Section 2. Distinguishing an employee from an independent contractor 552
- (A) Control 552
 - (B) Personal investment in the enterprise 553
 - (C) Intention of the parties 554

- (D) Some particular cases examined 554
 - (1) Hospital staff 555
 - (2) Borrowed employees 555
 - (3) Police officers 556
- Section 3. Is there a separate category of agents? 556
- Section 4. Liability in respect of an independent contractor 558
 - (A) Authorising him to commit a tort 558
 - (B) Torts where intentional or negligent conduct need not always be proved 559
 - (C) Negligence 559
 - (1) Personal negligence on the part of the employer 559
 - (2) Non-delegable duties 560
- Section 5. Where the employer is not liable for the acts of an independent contractor 563
 - (A) No breach by employer of any duty imposed on him by the law of torts 563
 - (B) Collateral negligence 563
- Section 6. Liability in respect of employees 565
 - (A) The commission of a tort or other wrong by the employee 565
 - (B) In the course of the employee's employment 565
 - (1) The course of employment: general principles 566
 - (2) Authorised conduct within limits of time and space 567
 - (3) Express prohibitions 569
 - (4) Connection of the wrongful act with employer's work 570
 - (C) Statutory duty and vicarious liability 575

Chapter 26

Remedies 577

- Section 1. Extra-judicial 577
- Section 2. Judicial 577
 - (A) Damages 577
 - (1) Nominal 577
 - (2) Contemptuous damages 578
 - (3) Distinguishing between general and special damages 578
 - (4) Personal injuries 578
 - (5) Damages and tax 579
 - (6) 'Parasitic' damages 579
 - (7) Aggravated and exemplary damages 579
 - (8) Mitigation of damage 582
 - (9) Successive actions on the same facts 584
 - (B) Account of profits 586
 - (C) Injunctions 586
 - (1) As a remedy per se, or as an addition to damages 586

- (2) Injunctions where an action in tort does not lie 588
- Section 3. Tort and contract 589
 - (A) Tort and unjust enrichment 590
 - (1) Election of remedies 590
 - (2) Advantages of proceedings in tort or unjust enrichment 592

Chapter 27

Compensation for personal injuries and associated losses 593

- Section 1. Introduction 593
- Section 2. Awards of damages to living claimants 594
 - (A) Pecuniary losses 596
 - (1) Loss of earnings 596
 - (2) Medical, nursing and hospital expenses 599
 - (3) Additional pecuniary losses and expenses 601
 - (4) Deduction for benefits received 602
 - (B) Non-pecuniary losses 604
 - (1) Pain and suffering 604
 - (2) Loss of amenities 605
 - (3) Assessing the quantum 605
 - (4) Provisional awards 606
 - (5) Interest 607
 - (C) Damage or destruction of goods 608
- Section 3. Death 608
 - (A) Survival of actions 608
 - (B) Death as a cause of action 610
 - (1) Introduction 610
 - (2) Who may sue? 610
 - (3) Nature of the act complained of 611
 - (4) The nature of the interests protected 612
 - (5) Period of limitation 613
 - (6) Assessment of damages 613
- Section 4. Alternative compensation systems 617
 - (A) Responsibility and the welfare state 617
 - (B) Other compensation systems 618
 - (1) Criminal injuries compensation scheme 618
 - (2) Occupational sick pay 618
 - (3) Occupational pensions 618
 - (4) Industrial injuries scheme 618
 - (5) Trade unions and charities 619
 - (6) Insurance 619
 - (C) The Pearson Report 619

Chapter 28

Extinction of remedies 621

- Section 1. Waiver 621
- Section 2. Satisfaction 622
- Section 3. Judgment 623
- Section 4. Release 623
- Section 5. Accord and satisfaction 623
- Section 6. Limitation of actions 624
 - (A) Introduction 624
 - (B) When does a cause of action accrue? 626
 - (C) Special rules for personal injuries 627
 - (D) Latent damage in non-personal injuries cases 631
 - (E) Continuing wrongs 633
 - (F) Effect of disability of the claimant 633
 - (G) Postponement of limitation period in cases of fraud or concealment 634
- Section 7. Death 635

Chapter 29

Capacity and parties 637

- Section 1. The Crown 637
 - (A) Vicarious liability 637
 - (B) Non-vicarious liability 638
 - (C) Exceptions 638
 - (1) Judicial errors 638
 - (2) Armed forces 639
 - (3) Certain statutes imposing liability in tort 639
- Section 2. Foreign states 639
- Section 3. Ambassadors 640
- Section 4. Postal services 640
- Section 5. Highway authorities 641
- Section 6. Corporations 642
 - (A) Liability 642
 - (B) Power to sue 644
- Section 7. Trade unions and other unincorporated bodies 644
 - (A) Trade unions 644
 - (B) Other unincorporated bodies 645
 - (1) Liability as defendants 645
 - (2) Capacity as claimants 646
- Section 8. Partnerships and limited liability partnerships 647
- Section 9. Husband and wife 647
- Section 10. Mentally disordered persons 648
- Section 11. Minors 649

- (A) Liability 649
 - (1) Where the act of the minor is also a breach of contract 649
 - (2) Liability of the parent 650
- (B) Capacity to sue 650
- Section 12. Bankrupts 651
 - (A) Liability 651
 - (B) Capacity to sue 651
- Section 13. Assignees 652
- Section 14. Convicted persons 653
- Section 15. Joint torts 653
 - (A) Categories 653
 - (1) Joint tortfeasors 653
 - (2) Several concurrent tortfeasors 655
 - (3) Several tortfeasors causing different damage 655
 - (B) The important distinction between joint tortfeasors, several concurrent tortfeasors and other tortfeasors 656
 - (C) Joint tortfeasors and several concurrent tortfeasors 657
 - (D) Contribution 657
 - (1) Scope 657
 - (2) Who may claim contribution 658
 - (3) Those from whom contribution may be claimed 658
 - (4) Amount of contribution recoverable 659

Appendix 1

Convention rights 663

Appendix 2

Defamation Act 1996 669

Index 673