

Prof. Dr. Dirk Olzen/Susanne Schwarz (Eds.)

The Seventh Joint Annual Exchange and Conference:
Judicial Review in Comparative
German-Israeli Perspective

Nomos Verlagsgesellschaft
Baden-Baden

CONTENTS

§ 1	How Can A Court Control The Elected Legislature? – Thoughts On The Sovereignty Of The Legislative And Judicial Branch Martin Morlock	11
§ 2	Does The Court Really Control The Elected Legislature? Hillel Sommer	30
§ 3	Executive Power And The Least Dangerous Branch – Is Reconciliation Possible? Ralph Alexander Lorz	42
§ 4	Judicial Review Of Administrative Decisions: Ex Ante Guidance Or Ex Post Wisdom? Amnon Lehavi	62
§ 5	Raising Constitutional Issues In Court – What Does It Take To Make Courts Defend The Constituion? Lothar Michael	85
§ 6	Procedural Principles Of Judicial Review: An Analysis Of Israel’s New Model Suzie Navot	105
§ 7	The Independence Of Judiciary In Germany Susanne Schwarz	123
§ 8	Immunities Of Officials Within The Three Branches Of Government – Immunity Law As A Seismograph Of Trust In The Rule Of Law Friederike Lange	142
§ 9	Church And State In Germany Kyrill Makoski	152
§ 10	“Pecunia Non Olet”: The Role Of Political Parties In Germany And Their Funding Sebastian Roßner	174