

Private Prisons in America

A CRITICAL RACE PERSPECTIVE

Michael A. Hallett

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS PRESS
URBANA AND CHICAGO

CONTENTS

Foreword Randall G. Sheldon / ix

Acknowledgments / xiii

1. Race, Crime, and For-Profit
Imprisonment / i
2. For-Profit Imprisonment in
American History / 39
3. Capitalist Crime Control: Social
Disorganization as Market
Opportunity / 60
4. Money and Power: The Political
Economy of Prison Privatization / 80
5. Bad Faith: A Critical Look at
"Faith-Based" Corrections / 109
6. The Easy Inmate Market:
The Micropolitics of
Private Prisons / 122
7. Commerce with Criminals:
The New Colonialism in
Criminal Justice / 142

Notes / 161

References / 165

Index / 181