Contents

Preface ...................................................................................................................... v
Table of Cases ......................................................................................................... xiii
Table of Legislation ................................................................................................. xix
Table of International Instruments ........................................................................ xxxix

1. The State of the Civil Justice Union ................................................................. 1
   Burkhard Hess

Part I: Avoiding ‘Torpedoes’ and Forum Shopping

2. Lis Pendens and Jurisdiction Clauses: Open Issues ................................. 23
   Gilles Cuniberti

Part II: Alternative Dispute Resolution

3. ADR/ODR: Too Much Optimism in the Promotion of Cross-Border Trade? ................................................................. 35
   Jim Davies

   Cristina M Mariottini

Part III: Simplified Procedures and Debt Collection: Much Ado About Nothing?

5. ‘Trusted with a Muzzle and Enfranchised with a Clog’: The British Approach to European Civil Procedure ......................... 81
   Carla Crifò

6. European Procedures on Debt Collection: Nothing or Noting? Experiences and Future Prospects ......................................... 97
   Xandra E Kramer

7. The Small Claims Regulation: On the Way to an Improved European Procedure? ........................................................... 123
   Cristian Oro Martinez

Part IV: Family Law

8. The Nordic Input on the EU’s Cooperation in Family and Succession Law: Exporting Union Law Through ‘Nordic Exceptions’ ............................................................................ 143
   Maarit Jänterä-Jareborg
Contents

Part V: Collective Redress

10. ‘Opt-In is Out and Opt-Out is In’: Dimensions Based on Nordic Options and the Commission’s Recommendation .......... 185 Laura Ervo

11. The Crux of the Matter: Funding and Financing Collective Redress Mechanisms ............................................. 201 Stefaan Voet

Part VI: The Quest for Mutual Recognition

13. Abolition of Exequatur, All in the Name of Mutual Trust! ....... 257 Marie Linton

14. On the Abolition of Exequatur ........................................... 283 Marta Requejo Isidro

15. Mutual Recognition as a Governance Strategy for Civil Justice ................................................................. 299 Eva Storskrubb

Index ......................................................................................... 337