

Security, safety and criminal justice in the Netherlands: An organizational and legal perspective

Prof. dr. E.R. Muller LL.M

 Kluwer
a Wolters Kluwer business

DEVENTER – 2012

Contents

Introduction	13
1 Security, safety and criminal justice in the Netherlands	15
1.1 Security, safety and criminal justice in the Netherlands	15
1.2 Definitions and perspective	17
1.2.1 Definitions	17
1.2.2 Legal and organizational perspective	21
1.3 Security and safety in a democratic state	22
1.4 Security system in the Netherlands	25
1.5 Contents	29
2 Ministers, mayors and municipalities	31
2.1 Ministers and ministries	31
2.1.1 Organization	31
2.1.2 Security policy and Dutch cabinets	33
2.1.3 Tolerance and mildness are history	44
2.1.4 National security policy	47
2.2 Mayors and municipalities	50
2.2.1 Role of municipalities and mayors in security more important	50
2.2.2 Local security policy	53
2.3 Trends	57
2.3.1 Complex	57
2.3.2 Centralization	58
2.3.3 Focus on municipalities and mayors	58
2.3.4 Partnerships	59
2.3.5 Content of security policy	60
Part A Criminal justice	61
3 Police and policing	63
3.1 Organization, facts and figures	63
3.2 Police and Dutch society	72
3.2.1 Police in change 1977	72

3.2.2	The police in evolution 2005	75
3.2.3	Developments relation police and society	77
3.3	Police work and accountability in the Netherlands	78
3.3.1	Police care in the Netherlands	79
3.3.2	Normative principles	80
3.3.3	Issues relating to accountability of the police	82
3.4	Principles of proper policing	85
3.5	Trends in police and policing in the Netherlands	88
3.5.1	Police is integrated in society	88
3.5.2	Police system in constant debate and reform	89
3.5.3	Police is becoming a professional organization	91
3.5.4	Intensive cooperation with others	91
3.5.5	Police has to balance due process and crime control	92
3.5.6	The culture of the police is crucial	93
3.5.7	Content of police work more attention	93
3.5.8	Police: primary focus on repression, prevention is for others	94
3.5.9	All aspects of police work have an international dimension	94
3.5.10	Police science has become richer	95
3.6	Closure	95
4	Judiciary: Courts and Public Prosecution Service	97
4.1	Judges and law	98
4.1.1	Structure	98
4.1.2	Administrative levels of the judiciary	99
4.1.3	Criminal law	104
4.2	Public Prosecution Service	105
4.2.1	Organization	105
4.2.2	The Prosecution Service and criminal investigation	109
4.3	Media and public prosecution	111
4.3.1	Public Prosecution Service and the media	112
4.3.2	Patterns in relations with the PPS and the media	114
4.4	Trends	115
4.4.1	The judiciary operates increasingly in close interaction with society	116
4.4.2	The demand for justice will increase quantitatively and qualitatively	117
4.4.3	Organization of the judiciary crucial characteristic of democratic law	118
4.4.4	Public confidence essential	119
4.4.5	Judiciary develops towards a professional and modern organization	120

4.4.6	More centralization and uniformity in management, governance and policy	121
4.4.7	Judges and magistrates more apart	122
4.4.8	Cooperation and coordination is becoming increasingly important	123
4.4.9	Instrumentality versus legal protection	123
4.4.10	Ethics, integrity and symbols as crucial values for the judiciary	124
4.5	Conclusion	125
5	Detention, prisons and probation	127
5.1	Facts and figures	127
5.2	Structure and organization	129
5.2.1	Forms of detention	129
5.2.2	Prison Service	130
5.2.3	Sectors of the Dutch Prison Service	132
5.2.4	Probation	136
5.3	Trends in detention	137
5.3.1	Detention is highly dependent on societal developments	137
5.3.2	Changing demands for detention: need for flexibility	139
5.3.3	Defective knowledge of detention	140
5.3.4	Detention is a highly juridical policy area	141
5.3.5	New attention towards recidivism	141
5.3.6	Need for long term policy	143
5.3.7	The detention sector is prone to incidents	144
5.3.8	Functionality and safeguards	145
5.3.9	Detention is an integral part of many policy chains	146
5.3.10	Quality of detention is an important indicator for the quality of society	148
5.4	Conclusion	149
6	Criminal investigation	151
6.1	Criminal investigation in the Netherlands	152
6.2	Investigation and evidence	155
6.2.1	Completing lines of investigation	155
6.2.2	Classification of cases	158
6.2.3	Choice of investigation category	159
6.2.4	Investigation strategy	160
6.2.5	Identification stage and evidence stage	161
6.3	Organisation of the criminal investigation process	161
6.3.1	Centralised or decentralised	161
6.3.2	General or specialist knowledge	163

6.3.3	Priorities or posteriorities	163
6.3.4	The reason for an investigation	164
6.3.5	Preparation or immediate start	165
6.3.6	Objectives	166
6.3.7	Composition of the team	166
6.3.8	Division of tasks	167
6.3.9	Form of management	168
6.3.10	Information transfer	168
6.3.11	Support and administrative organisation	169
6.3.12	Form of direction and control	169
6.3.13	Media management	170
6.4	Methods	171
6.4.1	Research at and around the crime scene	171
6.4.2	Neighborhood survey	172
6.4.3	Observation and posting	173
6.4.4	Composition drawing and confrontations	173
6.4.5	Tapping and printing	174
6.4.6	Interrogation	175
6.4.7	House search	176
6.4.8	Information, knowledge and experience	176
6.5	Conclusion	177
7	Forensic investigation	179
7.1	Facts, figures and organization	179
7.1.1	Netherlands Forensic Institute	179
7.1.2	Police and forensic investigation	182
7.2	Crucial forensic cases in the Netherlands	184
7.2.1	Schiedam Park Homicide	184
7.2.2	Putten Homicide Case	187
7.2.3	Programme to improve forensic investigation and prosecution	189
7.3	Trends in forensics	191
7.3.1	Forensic expertise very diverse	192
7.3.2	Forensic expertise independent role	192
7.3.3	Clear standards for forensic experts needed	193
7.3.4	Much attention has to be paid to expound and explain technical forensic knowledge	194
7.3.5	Advancing knowledge and technology should be cause for review	194
7.3.6	Need for more knowledge for police, judges and lawyers about forensic expertise	194
7.3.7	More attention for processes, cooperation and management	195

7.3.8	Contra-argumentation and review as standard	195
7.3.9	Strengthen international exchange of forensic expertise	196
7.3.10	Forensic science has to work together more intensively	196
7.4	Closure	197
 Part B Security and safety		 199
8	Intelligence and security services	201
8.1	Intoduction	201
8.2	The General Intelligence and Security Service (AIVD)	202
8.2.1	Functions and tasks	202
8.2.2	Powers and intelligence	203
8.2.3	Organization AIVD	207
8.2.4	Intelligence and criminal investigation	209
8.3	Regional Intelligence Services	210
8.4	Control and supervision	211
8.4.1	Control	211
8.4.2	Supervision	212
8.5	Trends in intelligence services	220
8.5.1	Principles for intelligence and security services in the Netherlands	221
8.5.2	Environment	223
8.5.3	Powers	224
8.5.4	Much intelligence available but sharing is difficult	224
8.5.5	National cooperation	225
8.5.6	International cooperation	225
8.5.7	Control and supervision	225
8.5.8	Organization and capacity	226
8.6	Closure	226
9	Public order maintenance	227
9.1	Powers of public order maintenance	227
9.2	Policing public disorder	233
9.2.1	Breaking point 1966	234
9.2.2	Hard confrontations: new breakpoints	234
9.2.3	Learning from crises	237
9.2.4	Optimizing and anticipating the unforeseen	239
9.3	Trends in public order	240
9.3.1	Individualization	240
9.3.2	Differentiation	240
9.3.3	Intensification	241
9.3.4	Provision of information	242

9.3.5	Transnationalization	242
9.3.6	Permissive culture	243
9.3.7	Repressive tendencies	243
9.3.8	Private and public order	244
9.3.9	From events to constellations	244
9.3.10	Variation in public disorder	245
9.4	Closure	247
10	Terrorism and counter-terrorism	249
10.1	Introduction	249
10.2	Modern terrorism	249
10.3	Terrorism in the Netherlands	254
10.4	Counter-terrorism in the Netherlands	260
10.4.1	Before 9-11	260
10.4.2	After 9-11	262
10.5	Trends in terrorism and counter-terrorism	274
10.6	Final remarks	281
II	Defence and armed forces	283
11.1	Introduction	283
11.2	Organization of armed forces in the Netherlands	284
11.2.1	Organization	284
11.2.2	International operations	287
11.2.3	Netherlands Defence Doctrine	288
11.2.4	National operations	292
11.2.5	Military Security and Intelligence Service	293
11.3	Armed forces in the Dutch state	298
11.3.1	The armed forces' crucial but changing role in the state	298
11.3.2	Inviolability of the primacy of politics over the armed forces	301
11.3.3	The deeply embedded loyalty of the armed forces to the state	302
11.3.4	The state's duty of care for the armed forces	304
11.3.5	Legal aspects	304
11.3.6	The military's own decision-making power relating to operational assessments	305
11.3.7	Intensive monitoring of the armed forces	306
11.3.8	The crucial importance of democratic accountability	307
11.3.9	Internationalisation of management and control of the armed forces	308
11.4	Trends in military and armed forces in the Netherlands	309
11.4.1	The armed forces as part of a broader security policy	309
11.4.2	The ever changing armed forces	310
11.4.3	Fragmented management and control of the armed forces	310

11.4.4	Managing the armed forces: an art too	311
11.4.5	Increasingly professional performance of the armed forces	312
11.4.6	Desirability and inevitability of the integration of the organisation and operations of the branches of the armed forces	313
11.4.7	Constant reevaluation of the relationship between the armed forces and society	313
12	Emergency services and crisis management	315
12.1	Safety regions	315
12.1.1	Act on Safety Regions	315
12.1.2	Attention factors for safety regions	318
12.2	Fire brigades	320
12.2.1	Organization fire brigades	320
12.2.2	Trends in fire services and organization of fire brigades	321
12.3	Medical Emergency Services	328
12.4	Crisis en crisis management in the Netherlands	330
12.4.1	Crises in Holland	330
12.4.2	Crisis management in the Netherlands	332
12.4.3	The Dutch crisis system	334
12.5	Trends in crisis and crisis management	339
12.5.1	Crises become more important	340
12.5.2	New and old threats	340
12.5.3	Risk acceptance is lower	341
12.5.4	Role of the media and communication are becoming increasingly important	341
12.5.5	Citizens have a crucial role	342
12.5.6	Prevention and preparation as an enabler	343
12.5.7	Response crucial for operational emergency services	343
12.5.8	After-phase core of crisis management authorities	344
13	Trends and conclusions	345
13.1	Trends on criminal justice, security and safety	345
13.1.1	Organizations	345
13.1.2	Processes	349
13.2	Trends on security, safety and criminal justice	351
13.2.1	Safety, security and criminal justice will remain important	352
13.2.2	Safety and security become broader and more integrated	353
13.2.3	Information is crucial	354
13.2.4	Security and safety means management of expectations	355
13.2.5	Security, safety and criminal justice are big business	355

13.2.6	Security organizations are structurally receiving more powers	356
13.2.7	Security and safety are a responsibility for everyone	357
13.2.8	Security and safety are local and international	359
13.2.9	Complexity and nationalization	360
13.2.10	Dutch security system can be improved	360
	Bibliography	363
	Glossary	381
	Author	385
	Index	387