

José M. González García

The Eyes of Justice

Blindfolds and Farsightedness,
Vision and Blindness in the Aesthetics of the Law

VITTORIO KLOSTERMANN
Frankfurt am Main · 2017

recht als kultur
käte hamburger kolleg
law as culture
center for advanced study

Contents

Introduction .....	15
--------------------	----

FIRST PART

Iconographic Traditions on the Gaze of Justice

Chapter 1

Hymn to the Gaze of Justice That Sees All .....	25
---	----

1. Mesopotamia: History Begins at Sumer .....	25
2. Ancient Egypt: The Sun of Justice and the Book of the Dead .....	30
3. Greece: »The Eye of Justice Sees All That Happens« .....	35
3.1. The Shield of Achilles .....	35
3.2. Orphic Hymns to Honor Themis, Dike, and Nemesis .....	39
3.3. Astraea Flees to Heaven in the Age of Iron and Returns to Earth in New Golden Ages .....	43
3.4. The Image of Justice in Greek Philosophy .....	46
3.5. The Image of Justice in Greek Tragedy .....	50
4. The Image of Justice in Rome .....	52
5. The Medieval Justice Also Has Her Eyes Wide Open .....	55
5.1. The Temple of Justice .....	56
5.2. Religious Figures of the Final Judgment: God Is the Justice That Sees All .....	57
5.3. The Age of the Cathedrals .....	61
5.4. The Era of the Town Halls .....	70
5.5. Allegories of Good and Bad Government: The Frescos of Ambrogio Lorenzetti at the Palazzo Pubblico in Siena (1338–39) .....	74
5.6. Venice, City of Justice .....	91

Chapter 2

The Blindfold Dispute .....	101
1. The Second Tradition: A Blindfold over the Eyes of Justice as a Critique .....	101
1.1 The Ship of Fools , by Sebastian Brant (1494): Foolishness Places a Blindfold over the Eyes of Justice. ....	106
1.2. Bamberg Capital Court Statute ( Bambergische Peinliche Halsgerichtsordnung ), 1507 .....	114
1.3. Blinded Justice Falling from a Horse, 1550 and 1627 .....	117
1.4. Bruegel the Elder, Justice (Iustitia), 1559 .....	118
2. Third Tradition: The Blindfolded or Closed Eyes of Justice as a Positive Symbol .....	124
2.1. Strasbourg, March 12, 1498: Jakob Locher Publishes His Edition of Horace's Works .....	125
2.2 Peter Vischer the Younger, 1524, Allegory in Honor of Luther or Representation of the Reformation in Images (Sinnbildliche Darstellung der Reformation) .....	127
2.3. The Criminal Code of the City of Worms, 1499 and 1531 .....	131
2.4. Adreas Alciato, Emblematum Liber , 1531 .....	134
2.5. Cesare Giglio, The Theban Judges , 1604 .....	137
2.6. Christ, The Just One, Mocked and Blindfolded .....	139
3. The Dispute between Justice Blindfolded (with Negative or Positive Meanings) and without a Blindfold (with a Penetrating Gaze) .....	142
3.1. The Criminal Codes as a Process in the Blindfold Dispute in Germany: Bamberg Capital Court Statute , 1507 .....	142
3.2. The Third Fundamental Iconographic Moment in the Legal Science of the Sixteenth Century: The Enactment of the Carolina Code or Constitutio Criminalis Carolina , 1530–33 .....	153
3.3. Comparison between Two Justices (One with a Blindfold and the Other without). ....	157
3.4. Justice on the Doors, Façades, and Rooftops of the Town Halls .....	158
3.5. The Fountains of Justice .....	170

Contents	13
Chapter 6
Justice or Fortune? .....	363
1. Albrecht Dürer: Nemesis or The Great Fortune ? .....	363
2. Jon Elster: Studies in the Limitations of Rationality ( Solomonic Judgments ) .....	372
3. John Rawls: Transforming Fortune into Justice ( A Theory of Justice ) .....	385
References .....	397