The Law and Practice of the United Nations

Fifth Revised Edition

By

Benedetto Conforti†
Carlo Focarelli

BRILL
NIJHOFF
LEIDEN | BOSTON
Contents

Preface xi
Preface to the previous editions xiii
Abbreviations xvii
General Bibliography xxv

INTRODUCTION

1. Origins of the United Nations Charter .................................................. 1
   A) From the Atlantic Charter to the San Francisco Conference ............... 1
   B) The San Francisco Conference, the entry into force of the Charter, and the United Nations membership ...................... 4
   C) Relationship between the League of Nations and the United Nations .................................................. 6
2. The purposes of the United Nations .......................................................... 7
3. The organs ......................................................................................... 8
4. The Charter as a treaty ....................................................................... 10
5. Interpretation of the Charter ................................................................ 13
6. The power to interpret the Charter ...................................................... 16
7. The “rigidity” of the Charter and amendment and review procedures ........................................... 19
8. Present trends to revise the Charter ..................................................... 22

CHAPTER 1. MEMBERSHIP OF THE ORGANIZATION

Section I. Acquisition of Membership Status

9. Admission ....................................................................................... 29
10. Admission requirements .................................................................. 30
11. Admission of mini-States ................................................................ 34
12. Admission of neutralized States ...................................................... 36
13. The so-called conditional admission and the non-existence of “positive” obligations of the UN organs .................... 42
14. Readmission .................................................................................. 48

Section II. Modifications in Membership Status

15. Suspension ..................................................................................... 49
16. Expulsion ....................................................................................... 52
Contents

17. Withdrawal ................................................................. 52
18. Effects of State succession on membership status .................. 54
19. Governments created as a result of revolutions or foreign military interventions ................................................. 59
20. Governments in exile ...................................................... 66
21. State succession and rules on credentials ............................ 68

Chapter 2. The Organs

Section I. The Security Council

22. Composition of the Council. Election of non-permanent Members ................................................................. 75
23. Voting procedure in the Council:
   A) The nature of the four Powers’ Statement at the San Francisco Conference .................................................. 78
24. B) The so-called veto power and the significance of abstention by a permanent Member ........................................ 80
25. C) Absence of a permanent Member .................................. 85
26. D) The problem of the double veto ..................................... 86
27. E) Abstention from voting by a Member party to a dispute ...... 94
28. F) Approval by “consensus” ............................................... 101
29. Participation in Security Council meetings of States which are not members of the organ ...................................... 103

Section II. The General Assembly

30. Composition of the Assembly. Subsidiary organs ................. 108
31. Voting procedure in the Assembly. A) The “present and voting” majority ............................................................ 111
32. B) Simple majority and qualified majority ................................ 112
33. C) Approval by “consensus” ............................................. 121

Section III. The Secretariat

34. Appointment of the Secretary-General ............................... 122
35. The Secretariat staff and the legal nature of the employment relationships ....................................................... 123
36. Privileges and immunities of UN officials .......................... 133
37. The protection of UN officials .......................................... 137
Section IV. The Economic and Social Council and the Trusteeship Council

38. Composition and functions of the Economic and Social Council ................................................................. 147
39. The Trusteeship Council .................................................................................................................. 150

Section V. The International Court of Justice

40. Organization of the Court .................................................................................................................. 151
41. Election of judges ............................................................................................................................... 153

CHAPTER 3. THE FUNCTIONS

Section I. General Limits to the United Nations Functions

42. Limits ratione personae and ratione materiae .............................................................. 157
43. The United Nations and non-Member States ........................................................................... 157
44. The domestic jurisdiction clause (Article 2, para. 7) ............................................................... 167
45. A) The notion of domestic jurisdiction ................................................................................... 170
   I. The legal notion ..................................................................................................................... 170
   II. The notion under Article 2, para. 7 ............................................................................... 172
   III. Developments in the practice ....................................................................................... 179
46. B) The meaning of “intervene” ............................................................................................... 183
47. C) The significance of the exception in the last part of Article 2, para. 7 ......................... 185
48. D) Competence to interpret Article 2, para. 7 ......................................................................... 189

Section II. Maintenance of the Peace: Functions of the Security Council

49. Chapters VI and VII of the Charter ......................................................................................... 189
50. The power to seize the council ............................................................................................... 193
51. Investigation ............................................................................................................................... 196
52. The peaceful settlement function under Chapter VI.
   A) Objective preconditions .................................................................................................... 203
53. B) Indications to the States of “procedures or methods” for settling differences that may endanger the peace ................................................................................................................. 208
54. C) The indication of “terms of settlement” ............................................................................. 211
55. Action with respect to maintenance of the peace under Chapter VII. General remarks ................................................................................................................................. 214
56. The determination of a threat to the peace, a breach of the peace, or an act of aggression ............................................................................................................................................. 219
57. The measures provided for by the Charter. A) Recommendations under Article 39 ................................................................. 236
58. B) Provisional measures (Article 40) .................................................. 240
59. C) Measures not involving the use of force (Article 41) ....................... 248
60. D) Measures involving the use of force (Articles 42 ff.).
   (a) Peacekeeping operations ....................................................... 281
61. (b) The authorization of the use of force by States .......................... 298
62. (c) Administration of territories ................................................ 319

Section III. Maintenance of the Peace: The Functions of the General Assembly

63. Discussions and recommendations on general questions .................... 337
64. The peaceful settlement function ................................................. 338
65. The problem of General Assembly powers regarding "action".
   A) The solutions given by the Charter ......................................... 343
66. B) The alleged formation of customary rules .................................. 348

Section IV. Maintenance of the Peace: The Functions of the Secretary-General

67. Delegated functions and executive functions .................................. 353
68. Autonomous initiatives for peaceful settlement ................................ 356

Section V. Maintenance of the Peace and Regional Organizations

69. Regional actions "authorized" by the Security Council ....................... 360
70. Existing regional Organizations .................................................. 366

Section VI. Economic Co-operation and Action for Development

71. Political decolonization and economic decolonization.
   Co-operation for development .................................................. 375
72. The organs tasked with economic co-operation ................................ 376
73. Normative functions ................................................................. 376
74. Operational functions .............................................................. 381
75. Relations with Specialized Agencies .......................................... 386

Section VII. The Protection of Human Rights

76. General aspects of United Nations action ..................................... 391
77. Action regarding individual countries ........................................ 396
78. Resolutions of a general nature ................................................. 398
79. The Human Rights Covenants and the Human Rights Committee ................................................................. 400

Section VIII. Decolonization and Self-Determination of Peoples

80. UN competence to decide on the independence of peoples under colonial domination ........................................ 404
81. The self-determination of peoples ......................................................... 408
82. Trusteeship ................................................................................. 412
83. The case of Namibia ...................................................................... 414

Section IX. Registration of Treaties

84. Effects of registration ........................................................................ 418
85. Effects of non-registration ................................................................. 419

Section X. The Judicial Functions

86. The judicial settlement of disputes between States .................................. 421
87. The advisory function of the International Court of Justice .................. 423

Section XI. Financing the Organization

88. Compulsory contributions of the Member States ............................... 433
89. Voluntary contributions .................................................................... 442
90. Issuance of loans and other “alternative” funding methods ...................... 443

Chapter 4. The Acts

91. Recommendations to the States ......................................................... 445
92. Decisions ....................................................................................... 450
93. Organizational resolutions ............................................................... 452
94. Operational resolutions ................................................................. 453
95. Proposals, authorizations, delegations of powers or functions, approvals, directives, recommendations between the organs ........................................ 454
96. Declarations of principles ............................................................... 455
97. The UN resolutions and the rule of law: The duty of the organs to comply with the Charter and with international law ......................... 460
98. The observance of rules of procedure ................................................. 462
99. Illegality of acts and the role of consensualism in the United Nations system .............................................................. 466

Index .................................................................................................... 475