

Great Christian Jurists in English History

Edited by

MARK HILL QC

Cardiff University

R. H. HELMHOLZ

University of Chicago

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Illustrations	page x
Biographies of Contributors	xi
Foreword
Lord Mackay of Clashfern	xvii
Preface	xxi
1 Introduction	1
R. H. Helmholtz and Mark Hill QC
2 Henry of Bratton (alias Bracton)	19
Nicholas Vincent
3 William Lyndwood	45
R. H. Helmholtz
4 Christopher St German: Religion, Conscience and Law in Reformation England	69
Ian Williams
5 Sir Edward Coke: Faith, Law and the Search for Stability in Reformation England	93
David Chan Smith
6 Richard Hooker: Priest and Jurist	115
Norman Doe
7 The Integrative Christian Jurisprudence of John Selden	139
Harold J. Berman and John Witte, Jr.
8 Matthew Hale as Theologian and Natural Law Theorist	163
David S. Sytsma

9	Lord Mansfield: The Reasonableness of Religion Norman S. Poser	187
10	William Blackstone's Anglicanism Wilfrid Prest	213
11	Lord Kenyon: Preaching from the Bench James Oldham	237
12	Stephen Lushington: A Civilian in the Last Years of Doctors' Commons Stephen M. Waddams	253
13	Roundell Palmer, Earl of Selborne Charlotte Smith	277
14	F. W. Maitland: Faithful Dissenter Russell Sandberg	301
15	A Passion for Justice: Lord Denning, Christianity and the Law Andrew Phang	319
	Index	339