When Movements Become Parties

The Bolivian MAS in Comparative Perspective

SANTIAGO ANRIA

Dickinson College

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

(2019)
Contents

List of Figures  ix
List of Maps  xi
List of Tables  xiii
Acknowledgments  xv
Acronyms and Abbreviations  xxi

Introduction  1
1 Theoretical Framework and Methods  30
2 Origins and Ascendance to Power  61
3 Candidate Selection Patterns  98
4 National Policy-Making Patterns  130
5 The MAS in Comparative Perspective  162
Conclusions  207

Appendix 1: List of Cited Interviews  231
Appendix 2: Municipal Election Maps, MAS Vote Share  237
References  241
Index  265