

BEING PORTUGUESE IN SPANISH

Reimagining Early Modern

Iberian Literature, 1580–1640

SUB Hamburg

A/764228

Jonathan William Wade

Purdue University Press
West Lafayette, Indiana

Contents

ix Acknowledgments

1 Introduction

Portuguese Pens, Spanish Words:
Remembering the Annexation

17 Chapter One

Portugalidade and the Nation:
Toward a Conceptual Framework

43 Chapter Two

Vicente, Camões, and Company:
Immortalizing Portugal through the Written Word

79 Chapter Three

Epitome of an Era: The Life and Writings of Manuel de Faria e Sousa

82 Faria e Sousa and Criticism

95 Faria e Sousa as Literary Critic

117 Faria e Sousa as Historiographer

139 Chapter Four

Staging the Nation: Cordeiro, Azevedo, and the Portuguese Comedia

175 Chapter Five

Anticipating and Remembering the Restoration:
Sousa de Macedo, Violante do Céu and Manuel de Melo

193 Conclusion

In Praise of the In-Between:
Reimagining Early Modern Iberian Literature

199 Notes

213 Works Cited

229 Index