

GETTING TO KNOW
WAIWAI

An Amazonian Ethnography

Alan Tormaid Campbell

Imagine a forest
A real forest

(William Sydney Graham)

London and New York
(1995)

CONTENTS

1	TELLING NAMES	1
	The Amazon Forest, the Old Caledonian Forest, and the Battle of Wounded Knee. What names mean. Arrival and first weeks with the Wayapi.
2	AT LONG HAMMOCK	28
	In the woods. Men hunting. Women and manioc.
3	OTHER VOICES	58
	Missionaries. Government officials. An exiled Indian.
4	ROMANCE	86
	Understanding and idealization. Sprees, drunkenness, and dancing. Murder. 'Lesser breeds without the Law.' Chiefs and power.
5	FOUR, FIRE, AND GIVING	119
	Relationship terms. Four as the fundamental mode of social logic. Fire as the fundamental mode of production. Giving as the fundamental mode of morality.
6	REMEMBERING	157
	Teaching literacy. What myths are. Narrative styles in myths.
7	SUBMITTING	185
	Shamanism and how to understand it. The anaconda and birth precautions, 'the couvade'.
8	AIMA	211
	Cultural change. Integration. Ethnic identity and ethnic survival.
	REFERENCES	239
	INDEX	247