

A 2900
1274
STUTTGARTER ARBEITEN ZUR GERMANISTIK
herausgegeben von
Ulrich Müller, Franz Hundsnurscher und Cornelius Sommer

---

Nr. 347

Creating a National Identity

A Comparative Study of German and Spanish Romanticism with Particular Reference to the Märchen of Ludwig Tieck, the Brothers Grimm and Clemens Brentano, and the costumbrismo of Blanco White, Estébanez Calderón, and López Soler.

Carol Lisa Tully

---

VERLAG HANS-DIETER HEINZ
AKADEMISCHER VERLAG STUTTGART
1997

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	iii
Chapter 1. Introduction.
a.) Historical and Cultural Context: The Romantic Paradigm.	1
b.) Terminology and Methodology.	23
c.) Survey of Research and Aims of the Present Thesis.	35
Chapter 2. Cultural Interanimation.
a.) Romancing Reality - The Frühromantiker and Spain.	43
b.) Paradojas germánicas - The Development of German Romantic Thought in Spain.	60
Chapter 3. Paradigm of Social Ideal: Identity through Stability. a.) Ludwig Tieck's Kunstmärchen - Individual, Community, and the Romantic Paradigm.	77
b.) Blanco White's Narrative Articles - The State, the Church, and the 'True' Spain.	103
c.) Conclusion.	132
Chapter 4. Narrative and National Tradition: Voices in Search of Identity. a.) The Kinder- und Hausmärchen of the Brothers Grimm - A Patriarchal Voice for the Nation.	136
b.) Estébanez Calderón's Escenas andaluzas - Voicing a Defence of Identity.	169
c.) Conclusion.	194
Chapter 5. Creating Romantic Heroes: Role Models for the Nation. a.) Clemens Brentano's Rheinmärchen - The Figure of Radlauf as Unifying Myth.	197
b.) Ramón López Soler's Jaime el barbudo - The Modern Creation of a Medieval Hero.	226
c.) Conclusion.	249

Chapter 6. Concluding Remarks.

a.) The Romantic Paradigm Reiterated.

252

b.) The Common Search for Identity.

255

Bibliography.

258