Human Rights in Political Transitions: Gettysburg to Bosnia
Contents

Preface
Richard Goldstone 9

Introduction
Carla Hesse and Robert Post 13

PART ONE: PUNISHMENT

Rethinking Truth, Justice, and Guilt after Bosnia and Rwanda
Aryeh Neier 39

Beyond Nuremberg: Individual Responsibility for War Crimes
David Cohen 53

Human Rights in the Haitian Transition to Democracy
Kenneth Roth 93

PART TWO: RECONCILIATION

Forgiving and Forgetting: Lincoln and the Politics of National Recovery
Robert Meister 135

Bringing the Messiah Through the Law
Ruti Teitel 177
The Need for Moral Reconstruction in the Wake of Past Human Rights Violations: An Interview with José Zalaquett
Naomi Roht-Arriaza

PART THREE: CREATING A CULTURE OF LAW

Making Public Memory, Publicly
Mark J. Osiel

Human Rights as Social Ideals
Owen Fiss

The Difficulty of Imagining Other Persons
Elaine Scarry

AFTERWORDS: HUMAN RIGHTS IN TRANSITION

Human Rights
Michael Ignatieff

Terms of Reconciliation
Michel Feher

Millennial Visions: Human Rights at Century's End
Ruti Teitel

Contributors