HUMAN RIGHTS IN INDIA

Historical, Social and Political Perspectives

edited by
C.J. NIRMAL

Institute of Indian and International Studies
OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

Foreword vii
Preface ix
Acknowledgements xiii
Notes on Contributors xvi
List of International Instruments xix
List of Statutes xxii
List of Cited Cases xxiii
Introduction
 Chiranjivi J. Nirmal xxvii

1. Awakening of Human Rights
   M. Sundara Raj 1

2. Victims of Human Rights Violations
   Rajagopal Ryali 23

3. Fundamental Rights: The Constitutional Context of Human Rights
   Leela Simon and Chiranjivi J. Nirmal 40

4. Human Rights Initiatives
   S.N. Nageswara Rao 53

5. Human Rights Awareness in Education
   A. Chandrasekaran 73

6. Practising Human Rights: A Feminist Perspective
   Indhrani Sridharan 91

7. Situating Human Rights in the Media
   N.V. Anandraman 124

8. Religious Freedom and Human Rights
   C. Joseph Barnabas 139
Contents

9. Human Rights of Prisoners
   Chiranjivi J. Nirmal
   162

10. Refugees and Human Rights: International and National Experiences
    V. Vijayakumar
    173

11. Organizational Basis of Human Rights
    K. S. Krishnaswamy
    188

12. The Working of the National Human Rights Commission: A Perspective
    V. Vijayakumar
    212

13. Setting an Agenda
    Chiranjivi J. Nirmal
    235

Towards a Bibliography: Some Notes for Students, Teachers and Activists 270

Annexure I. The Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993
   289

Annexure II. National Human Rights Commission: Basic Standards Recommended by Amnesty International 311

Annexure III. Notification of the National Human Rights Commission (Procedure) Regulations, 1994
   317

Annexure IV. Addresses of Statutory Agencies for Redress of Human Rights Grievances (Chennai and Bangalore)
   324

Index
   328