

A 358701

WOMEN AND POLITICS: THE PURSUIT OF EQUALITY

Lynne E. Ford

COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON

Houghton Mifflin Company    Boston    New York

Contents

Preface	xiii
CHAPTER 1. TWO PATHS TO EQUALITY	1
Politics and Women's Pursuit of Equality	4
Defining Women's Politics	5
Distinguishing Sex from Gender	7
The First Path: The Legal Equality Doctrine	8
Roots of Women's Claims to Legal Equality	9
Patriarchy and Limits to Legal Equality	10
The Second Path: The Fairness Doctrine	14
Separate Spheres Ideology	14
Separate and Unequal Becomes the Law	15
The Basis of Restricted Citizenship for Married Women	16
Feminism's Direct Challenge to Gender Relations	19
Approaches to Feminism	20
Liberal Feminism	21
Radical Feminism	23
Marxist/Socialist Feminism	24
Global Feminism	24
Black Feminism	25
Ecofeminism	26
Gender Feminism	27

Using Politics to Bring About Change	28
The Plan for this Book	28
Encountering the Controversies of Equality: Memorializing Women’s History	2
Encountering the Controversies of Equality: The Case of Pregnant Working Women	12
CHAPTER 2. ALL RIGHTS ARE NOT EQUAL: SUFFRAGE VERSUS THE EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT	34
From Seneca Falls to Suffrage: Three Generations of Women Work for the Vote	35
Female Social Activists Discover the Suffrage Cause: 1840–1869	35
Suffragists Disagree over Amending the U.S. Constitution: 1870–1910	42
The Final Push: 1910–1920	45
Never Underestimate the Value of One Vote	50
Opposition to Women’s Suffrage	51
Post-Suffrage Divisions: The Equal Rights Amendment or Special Protections for Women?	53
The Fight for an Equal Rights Amendment: The First Generation	55
The Second Generation	57
The Failure of the ERA	59
Women Opposed to the Equal Rights Amendment	61
→ Three Political Lessons About Gender Equality	62
Conclusion	65
Encountering the Controversies of Equality: Two Means to the Same End: A Contrast in the Styles of Alice Paul and Carrie Chapman Catt	46
CHAPTER 3. SUFFRAGE ACCOMPLISHED: WOMEN AS POLITICAL PARTICIPANTS	70
Women Enter the Electorate as Voters	71
Women Voters Outnumber Men at the Polls	72
Twenty-Something Citizens	74

The Gender Gap	75
The Source of the Gender Gap	77
Gender Differences in Political Participation Beyond the Ballot	78
Do Men and Women Specialize in Forms of Political Participation?	79
↳ Access to Monetary and Political Resources	80
Do Men and Women Speak in Different Political Voices?	81
Levels of Political Interest Among Men and Women	82
Explaining the Patterns of Participation	83
↳ Socialization	83
↳ Structural Barriers to Women's Participation	86
↳ Cultural Messages: Counterpressures to Political Activity	87
Mobilizing Women's Political Participation	89
Political Events and Issues Stimulate Interest and Raise Gender Consciousness	90
Organizations	94
↳ The Role of Political Parties	95
Conclusion	96
Encountering the Controversies of Equality: When Should a Woman "Blow the Whistle"?	92
CHAPTER 4. WOMEN SEEKING OFFICE: THE NEXT PHASE OF POLITICAL INTEGRATION	102
Women Candidates are as Likely to Win Elections as Men	104
↳ Women are NOT as Likely to be Candidates	106
Perception of Electability	106
Political Parties: A Help or a Hindrance?	109
The Pressure to Raise Money	111
Gender Stereotypes and the Campaign Experience	113
↳ Can Women Candidates Expect Support from Women Voters?	117
↳ Systemic Sources of Electoral Bias Against Women Candidates	119
Incumbency and the Potential of Term Limits	119
Single Districts Versus Multimember Districts	121
Initiatives Designed to Increase the Number of Women Candidates	121
Political Appointments: An Alternative Path to Political Office	124
Conclusion	126

Encountering the Controversies of Equality: Elizabeth Dole's Campaign and the Press	114
Encountering the Controversies of Equality: Is this a Sign of Progress?	122
CHAPTER 5. WOMEN AS POLITICAL ACTORS: EMERGING INSIDERS AND SEASONED OUTSIDERS	131
Political Representation	132
Are Women Unique as Representatives? 136
Political Insiders: How Do Men and Women Differ?	137
Ideology and Attitudes 137
"Styles" of Political Behavior 139
Policy Priorities 141
How Effectively Do Women Stand for Women's Interests?	143
The Role of a Women's Caucus in Facilitating Legislation for Women 144
The Difficulty in Defining "Women's Interests" 148
Seasoned Outsiders: Women as Political Activists and Agitators	151
The Politics of Direct Action and Community Organizing	152
Case #1: Increasing Funding for Public Education in Emerson, Massachusetts 154
Case #2: MADRE: An International Human Rights Organization 155
Case #3: New Right Women Fighting to Preserve Traditional Gender Roles 156
Case #4: Women's EDGE: Trade Is a Woman's Issue 157
International Agreements and Gender Equality	158
Rating the United States on Progress Toward Gender Equality 160
CEDAW: Establishing an International Standard for Women's Equality 161
Conclusion	165
Encountering the Controversies of Equality: Women and World Politics	162

CHAPTER 6. EDUCATION AND THE PURSUIT OF EQUALITY	173
A Brief History of the Education of Women	174
Legislating Gender Equity in Education: Title IX and the WEEA	177
Title IX and Equity in Athletics	179
Title IX's Broad Impact on Access to Education	182
WEEA: Women's Educational Equity Act	185
Equity in Action: How Girls and Boys Experience School	186
The Backlash: How Schools Cheat Boys	187
Education's Long-Term Impact on Women's Status Worldwide	189
Education Issues Facing Future Generations in the United States	190
The Unique Nature of Education as a Public Good	191
Single-Sex Schools	192
Conclusion	195
Encountering the Controversies of Equality: What About Men?	194
CHAPTER 7. WOMEN AND WORK: IN PURSUIT OF ECONOMIC EQUALITY	199
Women Enter the Workforce: A Brief History	201
Gender Socialization and Attitudes About Work	204
Legal Paths to Equality: Equal Pay, Title VII, and Affirmative Action	206
The Equal Pay Act of 1963	207
Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act	208
Affirmative Action Policies: Executive Orders 11246 and 11375	214
The Impact of Federal Policies on Women's Work Experiences	216
Women in the Professions	216
Sexual Harassment	218
The Pay Gap	219
Limits of the Legal Equality Doctrine in Promoting Economic Equality	223
The Glass Ceiling	224
Comparable Worth	225
Child Care	226
Strengthening Family and Medical Leave	230
Women in Retirement: Social Security and Private Pensions	231

The Consequences of a Gendered Economy: The Demographics of Poverty 234

The Gender Implications of Welfare Policy and Welfare Reform 236

Conclusion 239

Encountering the Controversies of Equality: Equal Protection Versus Protectionism 208

CHAPTER 8. THE POLITICS OF FAMILY AND FERTILITY: THE LAST BATTLEGROUND IN THE PURSUIT OF EQUALITY? 244

The Demographics of Modern Families 245

Creating Families Through Marriage 247

The Development of Contemporary Marriage 249

The Legacy of Patriarchy 253

Names 253

Domicile Laws 254

Property Rights 254

Divorce 255

Property, Benefits and Support After Divorce 256

Toward a Genuine Family Policy in the United States: What Would It Take? 258

Controlling Reproduction 260

Individual Access to Contraception 261

Individual Access to Abortion Services 263

RU-486 Gains Approval 265

The Demographics of Abortion 265

Public Opinion on Abortion 267

Women's Rights versus Fetal Rights 268

When Rights Are in Conflict: State Intervention 270

Technology, Reproduction, and Gender Ideologies 274

Conclusion 276

Encountering the Controversies of Equality: Domestic Violence Then and Now 250

Encountering the Controversies of Equality: Can a Feminist Be Against Abortion? 268

CHAPTER 9. CONCLUSION: NEW CHALLENGES IN THE PURSUIT OF EQUALITY	280
✧ Elective Franchise and Political Representation	282
Marriage and Family Rights	285
Education, Employment, and Economic Opportunities	287
Where Do We Go from Here?	289
Encountering the Controversies of Equality:     Will You Have to Move in Pursuit of Equality?	282
Suggested Readings and Web Resources	293