

A 399058

Third Edition

The Counterterrorism Handbook

Tactics, Procedures, and Techniques

Frank Bolz, Jr.
Kenneth J. Dudonis
David P. Schulz

Taylor & Francis
Taylor & Francis Group

Boca Raton London New York Singapore

A CRC title, part of the Taylor & Francis imprint, a member of the Taylor & Francis Group, the academic division of T&F Informa plc.

Contents

1	What Is Terrorism; Who Are Terrorists; What Do They Do?	1
	New Game	1
	Global War on Terrorism	2
	Meaning of Terrorism	3
	What Is Terrorism?	4
	A Brief History of Terrorism	5
	Terrorism as a Political Statement	7
	The Nature of Terrorism	8
	Characteristics of Terrorism.....	10
	Financial Terrorism.....	11
	Terrorist Actions	12
	Other Terrorist Actions	14
	Intimidation and Threats.....	15
	Disinformation and Propaganda	18
	Assassination	18
	Notes	19
2	Common Elements of Terrorism	21
	Purpose of Terrorism.....	21
	Modern Terrorist Groups.....	24
	Why Terrorists Succeed	26
	Mobility	26
	Communications	27
	Security	27
	Democratic Legal Systems.....	30
	Access to Arms	30
	Vulnerability of Targets	31
	Counterterrorist Response	31
	Weapons of Mass Destruction	33
	Role of the Military	34

Homeland Defense	36
Implementation of Homeland Defense	36
Organizing Homeland Defense	37
Secretary of Homeland Security.....	37
Border and Transportation Security	37
Emergency Preparedness and Response.....	39
Science and Technology	39
Information and Infrastructure Protection	40
Task Force Initiatives	40
Local Law Enforcement Capabilities	41
Local Significance.....	41
Private Sector Cooperation	42

3 Terrorism Defense Planning 43

Introduction to Risk Assessment.....	43
Security Advisory System	44
Structuring a Preincident Plan	46
Information Gathering.....	47
Targets.....	48
Target Profiles.....	49
Terrorists.....	49
Target Analysis	50
Organization.....	53
Training	55
Terrorist Tactics.....	56
Risk Analysis.....	57
Risk Avoidance	59
Hostage/Kidnap Defense	59
Notes	60

4 Bomb Defense Planning 61

Bomb Incidents.....	61
The Bomb Threat	62
Rationale of Bomb Threats.....	63
A Note of Warning	65
Warning or Hoax?.....	67
Bomb Threat Decision Making	68
Evacuation Options	69
Evacuation Procedures	70
Putting Out the Message	72
Planning Issues.....	73

Bomb Threats and the Police..... 73
 The Bomb: Terrorist Weapon of Choice..... 74
 Types of Bombers 75
 Motivations of Bombers..... 77

5 Hostage Situations 79

A Rare Occurrence..... 79
 Who Takes Hostages?..... 79
 Panic Reaction..... 81
 Suicide by Cop 82
 Why Hostages Are Taken..... 84
 The Magic Triangle..... 85
 Munich, 1972 87
 Deadlines 92
 Killing on Deadline..... 93
 Evaluation..... 95
 Responsibilities of the First Responding Officers..... 96
 The Mobilization Point 100
 Location of the Mobilization Point..... 100
 Decision Makers..... 101
 Evacuation 101
 Keeping Track of People..... 102
 Start Intelligence-Gathering..... 103
 Inner Perimeter 103
 Tactical Units..... 104
 Communications 104
 First-Response Review..... 105
 Summary 105

6 Kidnapping 107

Kidnapping as a Weapon..... 107
 Risks Involved 107
 Differences between Hostage Taking and Kidnapping 108
 Uses of Kidnapping 109
 Types of Kidnappers..... 110
 Criminal 110
 Professional 111
 Political 112
 Post-Cold War Political Kidnapping..... 114
 Domestic Spousal Confrontation/Emotionally
 Disturbed Persons..... 115

During and after the U.S. Operation in Iraq.....	116
Private Industry's Role.....	116
The Police Role	117
Police Response to Residence or Workplace of Victim.....	118
Response to the Kidnap/Extortion Threat.....	119
“Do Not Contact the Police”	121
McKidnapping.....	121
Hoax.....	122
Prevention Tactics	122
What the Individual Can Do	124
Journalists Do Not Have Exemptions	124
What the Family Can Do	127
One Man's Ordeal.....	127
What the Corporation Can Do	128
On Becoming a Victim.....	129
Notes	129

7 Threat of Weapons of Mass Destruction 131

A Long History	131
Definition of Weapons of Mass Destruction.....	133
The Threat Today.....	133
Aum Shinrikyo Incident.....	134
U.S. Anthrax Attacks.....	136
Chemical and Biological Agents	137
Transmission of Infectious Agents	138
Chemical Agents	138
Common Nerve Agents.....	140
Blood Agents	142
Blister (Mustard) Agents	142
Choking/Lung/Pulmonary Agents.....	142
Riot Control	143
Tearing Agents.....	143
Vomiting Agents.....	144
Biological Agents.....	144
Common Terms Associated with Biological Agents	144
Common Biological Agents — Class A	146
Common Biological Agents — Class B.....	149
Common Biological Agents — Class C	150
Other Biological Agents.....	150
Nuclear Weapons	151
Common Terms Associated with Nuclear Weapons	152

Response to a WMD Incident	153
First Responders.....	153
Federal Assistance	154

8 Domestic Terrorism 157

Ecoterrorism.....	157
Other Ecoterror Groups	162
Animal Rights Groups.....	164
GM Food Fight	167
Antiglobalism Groups	168
Abortion Clinic Violence.....	172
Cyberterrorism.....	173
Conclusion.....	175
Notes	176

9 Bomb Incidents 179

The Mechanics	179
Search Overview.....	179
Building Searches.....	180
Exterior Searches.....	180
Interior Searches	181
Search Teams.....	182
Setting Up a Program.....	182
Alternative to Search Teams.....	183
Mechanics of the Search.....	183
Searching a Room	184
Common Bomb Placement Locations	185
Precaution.....	185
Vehicle Searches	186
Antipersonnel Car Bombs.....	186
Vehicle-Borne Explosive Devices.....	187
Aircraft Searches	188
Preincident Executive Search	189
Explosive-Detection Canines	189
Suspected Packages	191
Identifying Improvised Explosive Devices.....	192
Explosives	193
Initiation Systems.....	199
Summary	204
Notes	204

10	Hostage Incidents	205
What Is Involved.....		205
Communicating with the Hostage Taker.....		205
The Making of a Hostage Incident.....		206
The Announcement.....		208
Reaction of Law Enforcement Professionals.....		209
The Application of Time.....		210
Criminal Role.....		211
Police Role.....		211
Containment.....		212
Evacuation and Intelligence.....		212
Why Police Do the Negotiating.....		213
Postincident Crisis Intervention Teams.....		216
Controlling the Environment.....		217
Dynamics of Hostage Negotiation.....		219
Words and Phrases.....		221
A Note on Weapons.....		221
Saying “No”.....		222
The Art of Negotiation.....		224
Courses of Action.....		225
Rescue.....		225
The Surrender and Suicide Ritual.....		228
Thought Interruption.....		229
Never Take a Weapon from the Hand of a Surrendering Perpetrator.....		230
Special Qualifications.....		230
11	Postblast Environment	233
Getting Back to Normal.....		233
The Incident.....		233
First Responders.....		234
Investigative Phase.....		236
Search Equipment.....		237
Safety.....		238
General Crime Scene Equipment.....		238
Documentation Material.....		239
Evidence Collection.....		239
Specialized Equipment.....		239
Establishing the Parameters of the Investigation.....		239
Preliminary Actions.....		240
Seat of the Explosion.....		241
Gathering Physical Evidence.....		243

Examining Fragments.....	245
Evidence Recovery	246
Physical Evidence.....	250
Container.....	250
Firing Systems.....	251
Postblast Investigation Process.....	254
Case Studies.....	254
Pan Am Flight 103 Bombing — December 21, 1988	255
World Trade Center — February 26, 1993	256
Oklahoma City — April 19, 1995	256
Initial Response.....	257
The Investigation	257
TWA Flight 800 — July 17, 1996	258
U.S. Embassy Bombings: East Africa — August 7, 1998	258
Bombing of the USS Cole — October 12, 2000.....	259
Madrid Train Bomb Attacks — March 11, 2004.....	259

12 Hostage/Kidnapping Aftermath 263

The Dangers Involved.....	263
The Immediate Reaction of Victims	264
Long-Term Reactions.....	264
The Family.....	265
Police Handling of the Incident	266
The Stockholm Syndrome.....	266
Transference.....	268
When an Incident May End in the Use of Deadly Physical Force.....	270
Ransom: To Pay or Not to Pay?	270
Making the Payoff.....	271
The Recovery.....	273
Victimology	274
Historical Background.....	274
Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder	274
Courses of Action	275
Immediate Postincident Reaction.....	276
Longer-Term Reaction.....	276
Returning to Normal.....	277
Postincident Effects on Rescue Officers.....	277

13 Interviewing Victims 279

By Frank Ochberg

Intrusive Recollections.....	280
------------------------------	-----

Emotional Anesthesia: Constricting Life Activity	280
Lowered Threshold for Anxiety and Arousal	281
PTSD Is Not Always the Same.....	282
Who Gets PTSD?	282
Other Difficulties	283
A Guide to Interviewing.....	283
Timing	284
Setting the Stage.....	285
Eliciting Emotion.....	286
Informed Consent.....	287
Stages of Response.....	287
The Humanitarian Role of the Investigator	289
Secondary Traumatic Stress Disorder	289
Notes	290

14 Role of the Commander 291

Who's in Charge?	291
Preincident: Developing Guidelines	292
Makeup of the Team.....	293
Maintenance of Manpower and Equipment.....	294
Keeping Up-to-Date on New Developments and Strategies	295
Evaluate and Update.....	296
Liaisons with Other Agencies.....	296
During the Incident: Intelligence Gathering	298
Evaluate Alternatives.....	299
Sharpshooter	301
Chemical Agents	302
Food.....	303
Alcohol and Drugs.....	304
Contain and Negotiate	305
Impact of the Event on the Public	305
Postincident Debriefing.....	307
Formal Debriefing.....	308
Evaluate New Developments and Outcomes.....	308
Case History: Russian Theater Takeover.....	309
Panic Reactions	310
Who	310
Negotiations at the Theater.....	311
Tactical Preparations.....	311
Sharpshooter	312
Chemical Agents	312

Rescue/Dynamic Entry.....	313
Russian Hostage Litigation.....	313
Theater Reopens.....	314
Continued Terrorism.....	314

15 The Command Post 315

The Nerve Center.....	315
Forward Command Post.....	315
Mobilization Point.....	316
Point of Negotiation.....	317
Staffing the Command Post.....	317
Bomb Incident Command Post.....	318
Log and Situation Map.....	318
Equipment and Supplies.....	319
Communications.....	320
Concealment vs. Cover.....	322
Handling the Media.....	322
Counterterrorism Command Center.....	323

16 A Closer Look at 9/11 325

Overview.....	325
World Trade Center Complex.....	326
The 1993 Attack.....	326
The 2001 Attacks.....	328
The Chain of Events.....	328
Composite — First Responders.....	330
New York City Fire Department.....	330
New York City Police Department.....	331
Port Authority Police Department.....	331
Office of Emergency Management and Interagency Preparedness (OEM).....	331
Communication Capabilities.....	331
Emergency Response to the WTC Attack.....	332
Citywide Coverage Affected.....	333
Mutual Aid.....	334
Interdepartment Communication.....	334
Collapse of WTC-2.....	335
WTC-1 Collapse.....	335
World Trade Center Collapse Sequence.....	335
Washington, D.C., Attack.....	336

National Response	337
Critical Findings of the 9/11 Commission — New York City Attack.....	337
Evacuation Immediately after Impact.....	337
Lack of Plans for Upper-Level Rescues.....	338
Challenges Experienced by First Responders/Incident
Commanders.....	338
Lack of Coordination among Responders.....	338
First Responders at the Pentagon Attack.....	339
National Recommendations.....	340
The Aftermath.....	342
Casualties.....	342
Financial	342
Appendix A: Government-Sponsored Terrorism	343
Appendix B: Foreign Terrorist Organizations (FTOs)	349
Index	385