

A 901010

Lingq

THE BEDFORD SERIES IN HISTORY AND CULTURE

Loc 27

Slave Revolution in the Caribbean, 1789–1804
A Brief History with Documents

Laurent Dubois

Michigan State University

and

John D. Garrigus

Jacksonville University

BEDFORD/ST. MARTIN'S

(2006)

Boston ♦ New York

Contents

Foreword iii

Preface v

MAPS 1

PART ONE

Introduction: Revolution, Emancipation, and Independence 7

The French Caribbean in the Eighteenth Century 9

The Revolution Begins, 1789–1791 18

From Slave Revolution to Emancipation, 1791–1794 24

Defining Emancipation, 1794–1798 29

The Haitian Revolution and the United States 34

War and Independence 35

The Legacy of the Haitian Revolution 39

Major Revolutionary Figures and Groups 43

PART TWO

The Documents 47

1. The French Caribbean in the Eighteenth Century 49

 1. The Code Noir, 1685 49

2. Prophesies of Slave Revolution, 1771 and 1780	54
3. Médéric-Louis-Élie Moreau de Saint-Méry, Description . . . of the French Part of the Island of Saint-Domingue, 1797	57
2. The Revolution Begins, 1789–1791	63
4. Letters from the Slave Revolt in Martinique, August– September 1789	63
5. The Free Citizens of Color, Address to the National Assembly, October 22, 1789	67
6. The National Assembly, Decree of March 8 and Instructions of March 28, 1790	70
7. Abbé Grégoire, Letter to Those Who Love Mankind, October 1790	73
8. Letters from the Uprising of Vincent Ogé, October 1790	75
9. Julien Raimond, Observations on the Origin and Progression of the White Colonists' Prejudice against Men of Color, 1791	78
10. The Debate of May 15, 1791	82
11. The National Assembly, Law on the Colonies, 1791	84
3. From Slave Revolution to Emancipation, 1791–1794	86
12. Hérard Dumesle, Voyage to the North of Haiti, 1824	86
13. Antoine Dalmas, History of the Revolution of Saint- Domingue, 1814	89
14. Pierre Mossut, Letter to the Marquis de Gallifet, September 19, 1791	93
15. Philadelphia General Advertiser, Reports from the Insurrection, October–November 1791	95
16. Jean-François and Biassou, Letters to the Commissioners, December 1791	99
17. Gros, In the Camps of the Insurgents, 1791	103
18. Olympe de Gouges, Preface to The Slavery of the Blacks, 1792	108

19.	Jean-Paul Marat, From The Friend of the People , 1792	111
20.	Thomas Clarkson, The True State of the Case, Respecting the Insurrection at St. Domingo , 1792	113
21.	The National Assembly, Law of April 4 , 1792	115
22.	Journal Républicain de la Guadeloupe, Account of the Slave Revolt , April 24, 1793	116
23.	Laurent Jolicoeur, Petition , 1793	119
24.	Léger Félicité Sonthonax, Decree of General Liberty , August 29, 1793	120
25.	Insurgent Responses to Emancipation , 1793	125
26.	The National Convention, The Abolition of Slavery , February 4, 1794	129
4.	Defining Emancipation, 1794–1798	133
27.	Victor Hugues, Proclamations , 1794	133
28.	Geneviève Laboithière Secures Her Brother's Freedom , 1796–1801	136
29.	The Plantation Policies of Étienne Polverel , 1794	138
30.	Jean-Baptiste Belley, The True Colors of the Planters, or the System of the Hotel Massiac, Exposed by Gouli , 1795	144
31.	Toussaint Louverture, A Refutation of Some Assertions in a Speech Pronounced in the Corps Législatif . . . by Viénot Vaublanc , 1797	147
32.	The Council of the Five Hundred, Law on the Colonies , 1798	153
33.	Étienne Laveaux, A Celebration of the Anniversary of Abolition , 1798	156
5.	The Haitian Revolution and the United States	159
34.	Thomas Jefferson, Letters , 1797–1802	159
35.	Refugees in Charleston, S.C., Petition , October 25, 1799	162
36.	Charles Brockden Brown, St. Domingo , December 1804	164

6. War and Independence	167
37. Toussaint Louverture, From Constitution of the French Colony of Saint-Domingue , 1801	167
38. Louis Delgrès, Proclamation , 1802	171
39. General Jean-François-Xavier de Ménard, On the Final Stand of Delgrès , 1802	173
40. Napoléon Bonaparte and General Charles-Victor-Emmanuel Leclerc, Letters , 1802–1803	175
41. Mary Hassal, From Secret History; or the Horrors of St. Domingo , 1808	180
42. Marie-Rose Masson, Letter to the Marquis de Gallifet , July 27, 1802	184
43. Brigadier General Pierre Cangé, Letter to Delpech , November 1802	186
44. The Haitian Declaration of Independence , January 1, 1804	188
45. The Haitian Constitution , 1805	191

APPENDIXES

A Chronology of Events Related to the Slave Revolution in the Caribbean (1635–1805)	197
Questions for Consideration	200
Selected Bibliography	202

Index	206
--------------	-----