

A 2008/ 3655

Deutsches
Jugendinstitut

Prevention of Right-Wing Extremism, Xenophobia and Racism in European Perspective

Peter Rieker, Michaela Glaser & Silke Schuster (eds.)

Contents

Michaela Glaser Introduction: Right-Wing Extremism, Xenophobia and Social Counter-Strategies in Present-Day Europe	5
Yngve Carlsson Violent Right-Wing Extremism in Norway: Community Based Prevention and Intervention	12
Miryam Eser Davolio, Brigitta Gerber, Monique Eckmann & Matthias Drilling The Special Case of Switzerland: Research Findings and Thoughts from a Context-Oriented Perspective	30
Gé Grubben Right-Extremist Sympathies among Adolescents in the Netherlands	48
Peter Rieker Juvenile Right-Wing Extremism and Xenophobia in Germany: Research and Prevention	67
Rod Dacombe & Momodou Sallah Racism and Young People in the United Kingdom	79
György Ligeti & Tamás Nyeste Right-Wing Extremism in Hungary	96
An Interview with Charles Rojzman, conducted by Silke Schuster “Multi-Cultural France is becoming a Multi-Racist Society”	113
Authors and Editors	125