

Robert Schuman:
Neo Scholastic Humanism
and the Reunification of Europe

P.I.E. Peter Lang

Bruxelles · Bern · Berlin · Frankfurt am Main · New York · Oxford · Wien

Contents

Preface	11
Acknowledgements	13
Note on Abbreviations	15
Introduction	17
CHAPTER I
The Social Magisterium and Supranational Society from Leo XIII to Pius XII
1. After Bonaparte.....	23
2. Faith and Morals	33
3. Periodisation	38
4. Thesis.....	43
5. Pius XII.....	57
6. Hyperthesis	71
CHAPTER II
The Reception of the Leonine Social Magisterium, Neo-Scholastic Humanism and Supranational Society
1. Initial Reactions to the Leonine Project.....	81
2. "Europe Is the Faith"	94
3. Christendom and Christian Philosophy.....	100
4. Rejecting the Ralliement	106
5. Integral Humanism	113
6. Etienne Gilson.....	126
CHAPTER III
The Life of Robert Schuman
1. A Famous Name	137
2. Lotharingia.....	141
3. The Wilhelmine Reich	145

4. Entry into Politics	152
5. Minister.....	160
6. Imprisonment, House Arrest and Escape.....	163
7. The Fourth Republic	165
8. Prime Minister and Foreign Minister.....	169
9. Schuman's dilemma.....	179
10. Adenauer Interviews	181
11. Jean Monnet's Ideas.....	184
12. Towards the Schuman Declaration	186
13. Schuman Declaration 9 th May 1950.....	192

CHAPTER IV

“Generalised Democracy in the Christian Sense of the Word”

1. Ideas, People, Hidden Motivations and the Public Record	195
2. The Common Good	198
3. After the Declaration.....	201
4. Church and State.....	203
5. The Finance Minister	212
6. Prime Minister	217
7. European Integration and National Interest	219
8. Cultural Unity	221
9. Adenauer.....	223
10. The Papacy and the Temporal City.....	224
11. Supranational Egotism	227
12. Schuman in the United States	230
13. NATO	233
14. Men of the Frontiers.....	236
15. Canada	238
16. Christianity and Democracy.....	240
Conclusion	249
Bibliography.....	259
Appendix	269