

SUB Hamburg

A/546891

Politics By Other Means

The Free German League of Culture in London 1939–1946

CHARMIAN BRINSON and RICHARD DOVE
with a chapter by ANNA MÜLLER-HÄRLIN

VALLENTINE MITCHELL
LONDON • PORTLAND, OR

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1

PART 1: EARLY DAYS

1. 'Remain Good Germans' (December 1938–September 1939)	13
2. 'Enemy Aliens' (September 1939–June 1941)	25

PART 2: THE SECTIONS OF THE FGLC

3. The Writers' Section	39
4. The Artists' Section, by Anna Müller-Härlin	54
5. The Actors' Section: The Little Theatre of the FGLC	74
6. The Musicians' Section	92
7. The Scientists' Section and the Free German Institute of Science and Learning	107

PART 3: SUPPORTING THE WAR EFFORT

8. 'Committing all our Efforts to the Struggle against Hitler Fascism' (June 1941–July 1943)	121
9. 'This was our Family': Free German Youth	134
10. Which Germany: Which Way? The Free German Movement and its Plans for a Post-War Germany	152
11. Marching On (July 1943–December 1945)	171

PART 4: THE WAY BACK

12. Winding Up	189
13. East is East and West is West	199
Conclusion	222
Postscript: The Post-War Reception of the FGLC in East and West	227
Bibliography	235
Index	245