

FORSCHUNGSBERICHTE
INTERNATIONALE POLITIK

40

SUB Hamburg

A 2011/ 757

---

“And no one will keep that light from shining”

Civil Religion after September 11
in Speeches of George W. Bush

Nicole Janz

LIT VERLAG

Contents

Acknowledgements page vii

PART ONE: INTRODUCTION

1. George W. Bush’s “God Talk” .....	3
Problem and Research Question.....	3
Scope, Methodology and Structure .....	4
Previous Work in the Area .....	6
2. Definition of American Civil Religion .....	10
Robert N. Bellah’s American Civil Religion .....	10
Scholarly Debates About the Concept.....	17
Working Definition and Criteria for Analysis.....	19

PART TWO: CIVIL RELIGION IN PRESIDENTIAL SPEECHES

3. Civil Religion After September 11 in Speeches of   George W. Bush .....	23
George W. Bush’s Evangelical Faith .....	24
From the Attacks of 9/11 to the War on Terror.....	26
Civil Religious Themes in George W. Bush’s Rhetoric and Possible Aims .....	29
God and Mission.....	30
Freedom.....	35
Sacrifice .....	38
Rebirth .....	42
Conclusion: Civil Religion for the Purpose of Unity .....	46

4. Comparison to George W. Bush's Predecessors.....	51
Selection of Presidents .....	51
God and Mission.....	51
Freedom.....	54
Sacrifice.....	56
Rebirth.....	58
Conclusion: Striking Similarities Throughout History .....	60
5. Evangelical Motifs in George W. Bush's Rhetoric.....	63

PART THREE: CONCLUSION

6. American Civil Religion Explains George W. Bush's "God Talk" .....	69
References .....	73
About the Author .....	89