

SUB Hamburg

A 2012/ 6689

---

MILITARISM IN A GLOBAL AGE

Naval Ambitions in Germany and the United States before World War I

Dirk Bönker

Cornell University Press
Ithaca and London

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
List of Abbreviations	ix
Introduction: Maritime Militarism in Two Modern Nation-States	1
Part I. Military Force, National Industry, and Global Politics: Naval Strategies of World Power
1. World Power in a Global Age	23
2. Big-Power Confrontations over Empire	47
3. Maritime Force, Threat, and War	73
Part II. The Cult of the Battle: Approaches to Maritime Warfare
4. War of Battle Fleets	101
5. Planning for Victory	125
6. Commerce, Law, and the Limitation of War	149

Part III. The Quest for Power: The Navy, Governance, and the Nation

7. Naval Elites and the State	175
8. Manufacturing Consent	200
9. A Politics of Social Imperialism	224

Part IV. A Militarism of Experts: Naval Professionalism and the Making of Navalism

10. Of Sciences, Sea Power, and Strategy	251
11. Between Leadership and Intraservice Conflict	275

Conclusion: Navalism and Its Trajectories	301
---	-----

Notes	311
Bibliography	377
Index	413