DINÉJÍ NA·NITIN
Navajo Traditional Teachings and History

Robert S. McPherson

UNIVERSITY PRESS OF COLORADO
Boulder
CONTENTS

Acknowledgments  ix

Introduction—Entering the Táchééh  1

1 Wind, Hand, and Stars: Reading the Past, Finding the Future through Divination  13

2 The 1918–1919 Influenza Epidemic: A Cultural Response  44

3 Sacred Evil: The Dark Side of Life along the San Juan  72

4 “Too Much Noise in That Bunch across the River”: Ba’álílee and the 1907 Aneth Brawl  100

5 Traditional Teachings and Thought: Navajo Metaphors of the Elders  133

6 “He Stood for Us Strongly”: Father H. Baxter Liebler’s Mission to the Navajo  159

7 Seeing Is Believing: The Odyssey of the Pectol Shields  187

8 Of Stars, Goats, and Wind: Navajo Metaphors Then and Now  213

9 Gambling on the Future: Navajo Elders, Jiní, and Prophetic Warnings  237

Bibliography  265

Index  275