

Bubbletecture

Inflatable Architecture and Design

Sharon Francis

The background of the page is a repeating pattern of overlapping circles. Each circle is defined by a dotted line, and they are arranged in a way that they overlap to create a honeycomb-like structure. The circles are scattered across the entire page, with some appearing larger than others due to perspective or zoom.

Introduction

07

Bubbleecture

14

Index

272