THE NEW COMPANION TO URBAN DESIGN

Edited by Tridib Banerjee and Anastasia Loukaitou-Sideris

CONTENTS

List of contributors	xi
Introduction: challenges and aspirations of urban design	1
Part I: Comparative urbanism	9
PART I.I
Arguments and observations	11
1 Comparative urbanism: design in translation Fran Tonkiss	15
2 Fishbowl city: postcolonial Los Angeles and the philosophy of the urban Ananya Roy	28
PART I.II
Regional experiences	41
3 Globalization, resiliency, and change: Latin American urban design in the 21st century Lawrence A. Herzog	45
4 Spatial justice and urban design: the case of Southern African settlements David Dewar	57

5	The fading pulse of place: Eastern Mediterranean cities in the neoliberal era Ramzi Farhat	70
6	Un-cities: the urbanism of rapidly growing cities in the Gulf region Surajit Chakravarty	83
Part II: Challenges		95
PART II.I
Claims and conflicts		97
7	Immigrants, mosques, and religious pluralism: challenges for urban design and planning Stefano Moroni, Francesco Chiodelli, Elena Porqueddu, and Anna Botta	99
8	Claiming ordinary space in the “cosmopolitan grid”: the case of Singapore Felicity H.H. Chan	110
9	Designing for difference in Barcelona’s el Raval Jeremy Németh	122
PART II.II
Informality		135
10	Informal settlement as a mode of production Kim Dovey	139
11	The new geographies and spatialities of informality Annette M. Kim	152
12	Urban informality and the city at night Su-Jan Yeo	163
13	Urban design and informal urbanism: case studies from Delhi and Mumbai Manish Chalana	175
14	The everyday exceptionalism of temporary settlements: the role of urban design response Rachel Berney	189

PART II.III
Explosive growth versus shrinkage	201
15 The insurmountable opportunities of explosive growth: urban design in China Daniel B. Abramson	205
16 Urban space design for hybrid and high-density environments Im Sik Cho	218
17 Shrinking cities, shrinking world: urban design for an emerging era of global population decline Brent D. Ryan	229
18 From abandonment to urban qualities? Urban design strategies for shrinking cities in Germany and the United States Karina Pallagst, René Fleschurz, and Sabrina Förch	242
19 Designing the shrinking city Justin B. Hollander	253
PART II.IV
Large-scale development	265
20 The design of large-scale redevelopment projects Alexander Garvin	267
21 From town hall to town plan: the case of Byblos, Lebanon Sandra Frem and Hashim Sarkis	280
PART II.V
Gentrification and displacement	295
22 Inner-ring suburban retrofit and neighborhood change in the post-suburban era Suzanne Lanyi Charles and Richard B. Peiser	297
23 Unsmart outcomes of the smart city initiatives: displacement and peripheralization in Indian cities Darshini Mahadevia	310

PART II.VI
Mimesis and simulacra	325
24 Between simulation and authenticity: the question of urban remaking Scott A. Lukas	327
25 Glocalizing themed spaces: the creation of urban spaces in China, Asia, and other regions Li Xiangning	337
26 Travels in duplitecture Bianca Bosker	345
27 Improvised urbanism in the design of India's unauthorized colonies D. Asher Ghertner	355
Part III: Aspirations	369
PART III.I
Resilience and sustainability	371
28 Pursuing resilient urban design: equitably merging green and gray strategies Zachary Lamb and Lawrence J. Vale	373
29 Reducing vulnerabilities through urban design: interventions for resilience in communities at risk Diane E. Davis	387
30 Planning the risk city: emerging practices Yosef Jabareen	399
31 The potential of SITES for urban design Frederick Steiner and Rebecca S. Popowsky	410
PART III.II
Health	423
32 Refocusing planning and design to maximize public health benefits Richard J. Jackson and Rebecca Ferdman	425
33 A new health urbanism Jenny Roe	436

34	Complete and healthy streets Lawrence Frank, Jared Ulmer, Bruce Appleyard, and Alexander Bigazzi	448
 PART III.III
	Conservation/restoration	465
35	Broadening heritage conservation through urban design: perspectives from Asia Vinayak Bharne	467
36	Heart of Shenzhen: the movement to preserve “Ancient” Hubei village Mary Ann O'Donnell	480
37	Planning modernity in Kabul: urban design as developmental politics Pietro Calogero	494
 PART III.IV
	Justice	507
38	Justice and urban design Bryce C. Lowery and Lisa A. Schweitzer	509
39	Toward transformative urban spatial change: views from Jakarta Kian Goh	519
 PART III.V
	Intelligence	533
40	Tarzan vs. IBM: value paradigms of urban technologies Dietmar Offenhuber	535
41	Smart citizens, participatory urbanism, and the future of city design Jennifer Stein and Scott Fisher	549
42	Designing cities within emerging geographies: the work of Senseable City Lab Fábio Duarte and Carlo Ratti	561
43	Intelligence for place-making and social inclusion: critiques and alternatives to India's Smart Cities Mission Balaji Parthasarathy and Brinda Sastry	571

PART III.VI
Mobility and access	583
44 Accessibility-oriented urban design Susan Handy	585
45 Mobility, accessibility, and urban form Yodan Y. Rofé	599
46 Modernism, pedestrians, and public space: a century of North American street design Paul Hess, Kelly Gregg, and Ryan Whitney	612
47 Aerial mobility, transport infrastructure, and urban design in Asian cities Max Hirsh	624
PART III.VII
Arts and culture	635
48 Designing the inclusive city: urban cultures, street arts, and public life Renia Ehrenfeucht	637
49 Painting insurgent artscares Stefano Bloch	649
50 Urban design and public art on Instagram Brettany Shannon	661
Epilogue	675
Index	678