List of Figures	v
List of Tables.....	vii
List of Abbreviations	ix
1 Introduction.....	1
1.1 Overall motivation of the doctoral thesis	1
1.2 Aim and structure of the doctoral thesis.....	2
2 Part I: The interdependence of pre- and post-disruptive supply chain risk phases.....	7
2.1 Motivation and relevance of part I.....	7
2.2 Supply chain risk management.....	8
2.2.1 Definition of supply chain and supply chain management ...	8
2.2.2 Definition of supply chain risk	10
2.2.3 Definition of supply chain risk management.....	15
2.3 Risk management phases.....	17
2.3.1 Pre-disruptive supply chain risk management	19
2.3.2 Supply chain disruptions	20
2.3.3 Post-disruptive supply chain risk management.....	20
2.4 Risk sources	22
2.4.1 Supply risk	23
2.4.2 Process risk	27
2.4.3 Control risk.....	29
2.4.4 Demand risk	30
2.5 Methodology for part I.....	33
2.5.1 Justification of qualitative methodology	33
2.5.2 Transferability: Company selection of part I.....	34
2.5.3 Traceability: Informant selection and research protocol	35
2.5.4 Truth value: Discussion of coding procedure	37
2.5.5 Analytical generalizability.....	38

2.6 Findings	39
2.6.1 The influence of supply risk on other risk sources	40
2.6.2 The influence of process risk on other risk sources	42
2.6.3 The influence of control risk on other risk sources	44
2.6.4 The influence of demand risk on other risk sources	46
2.7 Discussion	48
2.7.1 Theoretical contribution	48
2.7.2 Managerial implications	50
2.8 Conclusion, limitations, and future research guidelines of part I	51
3 Part II: The role of information sharing for flexibility capabilities	53
3.1 Motivation and relevance of part II	53
3.2 Flexibility	55
3.3 Flexibility in supply chain risk management	58
3.3.1 Pre-disruptive inbound flexibility capabilities	63
3.3.2 Pre-disruptive in-house flexibility capabilities	64
3.3.3 Pre-disruptive outbound flexibility capabilities	68
3.3.4 Post-disruptive internal flexibility capabilities	69
3.3.5 Post-disruptive integration flexibility capabilities	69
3.4 Information sharing	70
3.5 Methodology for part II	74
3.5.1 Justification of qualitative methodology	74
3.5.2 Transferability: Company selection of part II	75
3.5.3 Traceability: Informant selection and research protocol	76
3.5.4 Truth value: Discussion of coding procedure	77
3.5.5 Analytical generalizability	78
3.6 Findings	79
3.6.1 Inbound flexibility capabilities	79
3.6.2 In-house flexibility capabilities	82
3.6.3 Outbound flexibility capabilities	84

3.7 Discussion	85
3.7.1 Theoretical contribution	85
3.7.2 Managerial implications	88
3.8 Conclusion, limitations, and future research guidelines of part II	89
4 Part III: The role of national culture on supply chain visibility.....	91
4.1 Motivation and relevance of part III	91
4.2 Supply chain visibility	94
4.3 National culture	96
4.3.1 Definition and differentiation of national culture.....	96
4.3.2 Cultural dimension theory (CDT)	97
4.3.3 Alternative to the CDT: The GLOBE project	99
4.4 Systematic literature review (SLR)	104
4.4.1 Methodology of systematic literature review	104
4.4.2 Findings of the systematic literature review	107
4.5 Cross-cultural qualitative study.....	110
4.5.1 Justification of qualitative methodology	111
4.5.2 Justification of country selection	111
4.5.3 Transferability: Company selection for part III.....	113
4.5.4 Traceability: Informant selection and research protocol ...	115
4.5.5 Truth value: Discussion of coding procedure	116
4.5.6 Analytical generalization and cultural considerations.....	116
4.6 Findings of the cross-cultural qualitative study.....	118
4.6.1 LTO as an indicator of the interdependence of PDI and IDV	118
4.6.2 The paradox of UAI on SCV	120
4.7 Discussion of the cross-cultural study	122
4.7.1 Theoretical contribution	122
4.7.2 Managerial implications	123
4.8 Conclusion, limitations, and future research guidelines of part III.....	125

5 Conclusion of the doctoral thesis	127
Literature	129
Appendix	169
Appendix A: Interview questions of part I (original - German).....	169
Appendix B: Interview questions of part I (translation - English).....	172
Appendix C: Overview of interviewed experts in Germany, Japan, and the USA	174
Appendix D: Interview questions of part II	181
Appendix E: Data structure of part II: Inbound	183
Appendix F: Data structure of part II: Inbound.....	187
Appendix G: Data structure of part II: Outbound.....	190
Appendix H: Interview questions of part III	196
Appendix I: Data structure of part III: LTO-score as an indicator for PDI-approaches	198
Appendix J: Data structure of part III: LTO-score as an indicator for PDI-approaches	200
