

GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY SPECIAL PUBLICATION NO. 97

Geological Data Management

EDITED BY

J. R. A. GILES
British Geological Survey
Nottingham
UK

1995

Published by
The Geological Society
London

Contents

GILES, J. R. A. The what, why, when, how, where and who of geological data management	1
Database design
RASMUSSEN, K. An overview of database analysis and design for geological systems	5
CHEW, K. J. Data modelling a general purpose petroleum geological database	13
COATS, J. S. & HARRIS, J. R. Database design in geochemistry: BGS experience	25
GILES, J. R. A. & BAIN, K. A. The nature of data on a geological map	33
SAUNDERS, M. R., SHIELDS, J. A. & TAYLOR, M. R. Improving the value of geological data: a standardized data model for industry	41
LHOTAK, M. & BOULTER, M. C. Towards the creation of an international database of palaeontology	55
TOLL, D. G. & OLIVER, A. J. Structuring soil and rock descriptions for storage in geotechnical databases	65
MALLENDER, S. The use of text databases in the management of exploration data	73
Data management
LOWE, D. J. The geological data manager: an expanding role to fill a rapidly growing need	81
DULLER, P. R. The quality assurance of geological data	91
HENLEY, S. Project databases: standards and security	97
LOWRY, R. K. & CRAMER, R. N. Database applications supporting community research projects in NERC marine sciences	103
LOWRY, R. K. & LOCH, S. Transfer and SERPLO: powerful data quality control tools developed by the British Oceanographic Data Centre	109
BOWIE, R. C. Data management in the National Geological Records Centre	117
MILLER, R. G. & GARDNER, J. S. Geoscience data value, cost and management in the oil industry	127
Case studies
DOORGAKANT, P. Groundwater level archive for England and Wales	137
POWER, S, SCOTT, M., ROBINSON, G. & STATHAM, I. Database design and data management on the Swansea–Llanelli Earth Science Mapping Project	145
MCKENZIE, A. A. A hydrogeological database for Honduras	157
ALLEN, S. G. CD-ROM and its application to the petroleum industry	163
Index	181