CONTENTS

Acknowledgements vii
Contributors ix
List of Figures xv

Introduction xl

PART I
SMALL CITIES IN CONTEXT

European Provincial Towns: Demographic and Institutional Trends in Regional Networks, 1400–1600 3
Pablo Sánchez León

PART II
PRINTING AND THE BOOK TRADE IN SMALL EUROPEAN CITIES

A Golden Age? Monastic Printing Houses in the Fifteenth Century 37
Falk Eisermann

Advertising or Fama? Local Markets for Schoolbooks in Sixteenth-Century Italy 69
Paul F. Gehl

The Book Trade in Early Modern Britain: Centres, Peripheries and Networks 101
John Hinks

Impressorie Arte: The Impact of Printing in Exeter and Devon 127
Ian Maxted

Printing in the Shadow of a Metropolis 147
Hubert Meeus

Towns and Book Culture in Hungary at the End of the Fifteenth Century and During the Sixteenth Century 171
István Monok
Ippolito Ferrarese, a Traveling 'Cerretano' and Publisher in Sixteenth-Century Italy .................................................. 201
Giancarlo Petrella

Print and Book Culture in the Danish Town of Odense .................. 227
Wolfgang Undorf

Printer Mobility in Sixteenth-Century France .......................... 249
Malcolm Walsby

PART III
PRINTING AND THE BOOK TRADE IN SMALL SPANISH CITIES

Printing Presses in Antequera in the Sixteenth Century .................. 271
Natalia Maillard Álvarez and Rafael M. Pérez García

The Liturgical Publishing Project of Pedro de Castro,
Bishop of Cuenca (1554–1561) .............................................. 303
Jaime Moll

Minor Printing Offices in Fifteenth and Sixteenth-Century
Aragon: Hijar, Huesca and Épila ............................................ 309
Manuel-Jose Pedraza-Gracia

Barcelona: Printers, Booksellers and Local Markets in the Sixteenth Century ...................................................... 325
Manuel Peña Díaz

The Book in Segovia in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries:
Accident, Chance, Necessity? ............................................. 345
Fermín de los Reyes and Marta M. Nadales

Santiago de Compostela: A Case Study of Bookselling in Peripheries ................................................................. 363
Benito Rial Costas

From Europe to Finisterre: A Caravan of Books to Galicia (1595) .... 381
Anastasio Rojo Vega

Index .................................................................................. 403