

How Writing Came About

DENISE SCHMANDT-BESSERAT

University of Texas Press
Austin

Contents

Preface xi

Introduction: Tokens, a New Theory i

The Myths 2

The Pictographic Theory 4

Tokens 7

PART ONE: THE EVIDENCE

One What Are Tokens? 15
Types and Subtypes 15
Evolution from Plain to Complex 15
Materials 17
Manufacture 17
The Token Collection under Study 20

Two Where Tokens Were Handled and Who Used Them 29
Types of Settlements 29
Distribution within Settlements 29
Structures 30
Token Clusters 32
Containers Holding Tokens 32
Associated Assemblages 33
Tokens as Funerary Offerings 34

Three Strings of Tokens and Envelopes 39
Strings of Tokens 39
Envelopes 42

Four Impressed Tablets 55
Number 55
Context 57

Chronology 57
Description 58
The Signs 58
Beyond the Impressed Tablets: Pictography 68
The Meaning of Signs and Their Corresponding Tokens 80
The Place of Impressed Tablets in the Evolution of Writing 84

PART TWO: THE INTERPRETATION

Five The Evolution of Symbols in Prehistory 89
Symbols and Signs 89
Lower and Middle Paleolithic Symbols 90
Upper Paleolithic and Mesolithic Symbols 90
Neolithic Symbols 93
A Turning Point in Communication and Data
Storage 96

Six Tokens: The Socioeconomic Implications 101
Reckoning Technology and Economy 101
Reckoning Technology and Social Organization 103

Seven Counting and the Emergence of Writing 111
The Various Modes of Counting 111
The Sumerian Philological Evidence 113
The Near Eastern Archaeological Data 114

Eight Conclusions: Tokens, Their Role in Prehistory and Their Contribution to Archaeology 123
Economy 123
Political Structure 123
Mathematics 124
Communication 124

PART THREE: THE ARTIFACTS

Cones 128
Spheres 131
Disks 133
Cylinders 137
Tetrahedrons 139
Ovoids 141
Quadrangles 143
Triangles 145
Biconoids 147
Paraboloids 148
Bent Coils 149

Ovals/Rhomboids	150
Vessels	151
Tools	154
Animals	155
Miscellaneous	157

Notes	159
--------------	-----

Glossary	183
-----------------	-----

Index	185
--------------	-----