

UNIVER-CITY

The old middle-sized European academic town
as framework of the global society
of science – challenges and possibilities

SEKEL BOKFÖRLAG

Contents

Introduction 9

11 Bo Larsson

The idea of the Univer-City symposium –
summary and future perspectives.

23 Kerstin Barup

Welcome to Lund University and the Department of Architecture and Built Environment.

27 Carl-Gustaf Andrén

Knowledge – Power – Possibility.

33 Claes Caldenby

The university–city interface.

Lund 39

40 Annika Annerby Jansson, Inga Hallén, Bo Larsson

Lund – uniting the contemporary university with the cultural heritage and identity of a thousand years old city.

59 Hjördis Kristenson

Nineteenth century science buildings of Lund – functional structures and architectural symbols.

66 Tomas Tägil

Lund – Creativity and Context.

Malmö 73

74 Eva Dalman, Bo Larsson

Malmö, a city in transition from industrial to knowledge city.

Uppsala 89

90 Mats Franzén, Sten-Åke Bylund, Kristina Nilsson

Uppsala as a university city.

Turku 101

103 Laura Kolbe

Two universities, two intellectual traditions –
Academic culture and the city of Turku.

Bologna 115

117 Roberto Grandi, Virginio Merola

The University and the city.

Urbino 131

132 Etra Connie Occhialini

A city and its memories.

Cambridge 149

150 Peter Carolin

Cambridge Futures:
enabling consensus on growth and change.

Durham 165

166 Tracey Ingle

Small town, University and Cathedral City.

St Andrews 175

176 Donald Mcgregor

City in transition: but to what?

Greifswald 185

186 A. Frieberg, A. Hauck, T. Kaiser, H. Klüter, J. Wilke

From Univer-City to Science City.

Marburg 199

201 Claus-Marco Dieterich

Postcards from Marburg.

Göttingen 213

215 Thomas Dienberg, Hans-Dieter Ohlow

The City and its University or
The University and its City.

Weimar 233

234 Mario Weißner

University and culture as building blocks of a town –
Weimar.

247 Brigitta Ziegenbein, Philipp Zakrzewski

The Bauhaus-University Weimar – ‘town and gown’ or integrated city-university?

Poitiers 265266 Jean-Pierre Gesson, Dominique Royoux

The relationships between the city and the university in Poitiers.

Leuven 275276 Tine van Herck, Marc Leroy

Urban planning processes of university complexes in Leuven.

Leiden 291293 Henri Lenferink, Willem te Best

Friction causes brilliance.

Groningen 307308 Annemieke Galema, Alfred Peterson, Piet Pellenbarg

City and university. A spatial and economic approach.

Innsbruck 323325 Arnold Klotz, Bo Larsson

Innsbruck and its university – historical outline and present interchange.

Pécs 335337 Mátyás Hübner, László I. Komlósi

‘The Phoenix is not too Infrequent.’

Salamanca 345346 J. Villar Castro

Meeting Hall. Study and Leisure?

Coimbra 357359 Carlos Encarnação

Coimbra: A Shared City.

368 Paula Santana

Coimbra Univer(s)City.

Cracow (Kraków) 373374 Andrzej Wyżykowski

University as an integral part of city structure and development.

Lublin 383384 Elżbieta Przesmycka

The influence of the higher education system on the development of cities: The example of Lublin.

Toruń 401402 Michał Zaleski, Andrzej Jamiołkowski

Nicolaus Copernicus University and the City of Toruń.

Vilnius 413414 Nijolė Bulotaitė

University heritage and the image of the University.

422 Dalia Bardauskienė, Juozas Lazutka

Urban environment and creativity: relations between city and university.

428 Jonas Jakaitis

Aspects of Interaction of the City Architecture and Society.

Chernivtsi 441444 Bo Larsson

Historic introduction to Chernivtsi.

447 Svitlana Bilenkova, Stepan Melnychuk

Cultural heritage preservation of Chernivtsi University and city planning of Chernivtsi City centre.

458 Svitlana Bilenkova

Josef Hlavka’s Residence of Bukovinian Metropolitans in The Hot-Button Issues Context of Preserving The Traditional Character of Chernivtsi City Historical Landscape.

Appendix 467470 Picture credits