

OPENING DOORS

The Early Netherlandish Triptych Reinterpreted

LYNN F. JACOBS

The Pennsylvania State University Press
University Park, Pennsylvania

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations.....	viii
Acknowledgments.....	xvi
Introduction: The Triptych as a "Painting with Doors".....	I
PART I: ORIGINS AND THE FIRST HALF OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY
1 The Emergence of the Early Netherlandish Triptych I: Robert Campin (and His Associates).....	33
2 The Emergence of the Early Netherlandish Triptych II: Jan van Eyck.....	61
PART II: THE SECOND HALF OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY
3 The Triptych Reformulated: Rogier van der Weyden.....	87
4 The Triptych Popularized: Painters of the Second Half of the Fifteenth Century.....	119
5 The Triptych Unified: Memling, David, and Later Fifteenth- Century Painters in Bruges.....	151
PART III: THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY AND BEYOND
6 The World Triptych: Hieronymus Bosch.....	189
7 The Triptych in the Age of the Renaissance and the Reformation.....	220
8 Coda: The Triptych in the Age of Rubens.....	257
Notes.....	281
Bibliography.....	342
Index.....	351