

EMILY PUGH

ARCHITECTURE, POLITICS,
& IDENTITY IN DIVIDED
BERLIN

UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH PRESS

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
List of Acronyms	xi
Introduction: Divided Capital, Dividing Capital	1
1. Modern Capital, Divided Capital: Berlin before the Wall	19
2. A Capital without a Country: Shaping West Berlin's Image in the Early Cold War	62
3. The Unbridled Buildup of Socialism: Defining and Critiquing Heimat-GDR	106
4. The Dreamed-of GDR: Public Space, Private Space, and National Identity in the Honecker Era	155
5. Capital of the Counterculture: West Berlin and the Changing Divides of the Cold War West	200
6. Back to the Center: Restoring West Berlin's Image and Identity	241
7. Collapsing Borders: Housing, Berlin's 750th Anniversary, and the End of the GDR	283
Conclusion: Constructing the Capital of the Berlin Republic	329
Appendix: Governing Entities and Nomenclature, 1949–1989	341
Notes	347
Bibliography	411
Index	435