CONTENTS

List of Illustrations vii
List of Contributors ix
Preface Jonathan M. Woodham xii
Acknowledgements xvi
Introduction Joanna Weddell and Liz Farrelly xvii

Part I The Canon and Design in the Museum

1 Exhibiting 'The Taste of Everyday Things': Kenneth Clark and CEMA's Wartime Exhibitions of Design Sue Breakell 3
2 The Ethos of the Victoria and Albert Museum Circulation Department 1947-1960 Joanna Weddell 15
3 'I Would Suggest that You Should Not Think of the Design Centre as a Museum; It is a Live, Active, Moving Thing': Designs of the Year, 1957 Ness Wood 27
4 Designing for a New Nigeria: Hayes Textiles Limited and the British Manufacture of Gele in the Postcolonial Period Nicola Stylianou 41
5 Towards an Uncensored History of Design: Ideal Hornes and Constance Spry at the Design Museum, London Deborah Sugg Ryan 51
6 Ghosts and Dancers: Immaterials and the Museum Jana Scholze 61

Part II Positioning Design within and beyond the Museum

7 Indian Living Cultures: Collected, Exhibited and Performed Megha Rajguru and Nicola Ashmore 73
8 Triennale Design Museum: An Evolving Curatorial Project Virginia Lucarelli 83
9 Gallery Envy and Contingent Autonomy: Exhibiting Design Art Damon Taylor 91
10 Contemporary Designers, Cultural Diplomacy and the Museum without Walls Gareth Williams 97
11 Curating Critical Design: An Embodied Criticality Gillian Russell 105

Part III Interpretation and the Challenge of Design

12 Design, Politics and Museum Presentation Marianne Lamonaca 115
Contents

13 You Are Here, We Are There: Tracing NID's Design Histories  Tom Wilson  127

14 Just What Is it that Makes Curating Design so Different, so Appealing?  Helen Charman  137

15 Design and Museum Interpretation: Contemporary Characteristics and Practice  Jason Cleverly  149

16 Interactions in the Museum: Design Culture Salons at the Victoria and Albert Museum  Leah Armstrong and Guy Julier  159

17 Museums Online and Digital: Some Innovations and Implications  Liz Farrelly  169

Closing Comments  Liz Farrelly and Joanna Weddell  181

Index  183