Mary Ann Maslak

Education and Female Entrepreneurship in Asia

Public Policies and Private Practices
CONTENTS

1 Introduction to the Book

Part I Economies and Documents

2 The Formal and Informal Economies: Setting the Stage for Female Entrepreneurship in Asia 11

3 Global Initiatives for Female Entrepreneurship: The Sustainable Development and Millennium Development Goals 15

Part II Country-Level Initiatives

4 Country-Level Initiatives: China’s Reflections on and Plan for Women’s Entrepreneurship 27

5 Country-Level Initiatives: India’s Reflections on and Plan for Women’s Entrepreneurship 35

6 Country-Level Initiatives: Japan’s Reflections on and Plan for Women’s Entrepreneurship 43
7 Country-Level Initiatives: Indonesia’s Reflections on and Plan for Women’s Entrepreneurship 51

8 Country-Level Initiatives: Singapore’s Reflections on and Plan for Women’s Entrepreneurship 67

Part III Case Studies

9 Women Learning About Entrepreneurship: The Case of China 81

10 Women Learning About Entrepreneurship: The Case of India 109

11 Women Learning About Entrepreneurship: The Case of the “Hungry Spirit” of the Japan 127

12 Women Learning About Entrepreneurship: The Case of Indonesia 155

13 Women Learning About Entrepreneurship: The Case of Singapore 177

Part IV Frameworks

14 A Conceptual and Theoretical Framework for Examining Women’s Learning About Entrepreneurship 219

Part V Future Directions

15 Directions for Female Entrepreneurship: Thinking About Educational Programs 235

Index 239