

The EU Migration Partnership Framework

Time for a rethink?

Clare Castillejo

Bonn 2017

Contents

Abstract

Abbreviations

Executive summary 1

1 Introduction 5

2 Introducing the Migration Partnership Framework (MPF) 6

2.1 The MPF within the EU's migration policy framework 6

2.2 How migration partnerships work 7

3 The differing perspectives of European actors on the MPF 8

3.1 Conflicting member state interests 8

3.2 Differences among EU institutions 10

3.3 Perspectives of external observers 11

3.4 Disagreement over funding of migration partnerships 11

4 Controversial aspects of the MPF 12

4.1 Subordination of EU external interests to migration 12

4.2 The use of conditionalities 13

4.3 Undermining development principles? 14

4.4 Undermining human rights principles? 15

5 Implementation and impact of the MPF 17

5.1 Impact on migration trends 17

5.2 Impact on EU internal systems 19

5.3 Implementation and impact of EUTF projects 20

5.4 Impact on returns and readmissions 21

5.5 MPF implementation in Niger 22

5.6 MPF implementation in Mali 23

5.7 MPF implementation in Senegal 24

5.8 MPF implementation in Nigeria 24

6 The Ethiopia migration partnership 25

6.1 Migration and refugee challenges in Ethiopia 25

6.2 EU-Ethiopia political engagement 26

6.3 European coordination on migration in Ethiopia 27

6.4 Returns and readmission 28

6.5 Migration programming 30

7 The MPF and EU-Africa relations 32

7.1 EU-Africa engagement on migration 32

7.2 African interests and priorities on migration 33

7.3 Migration at the EU-AU summit 35

8 The way forward 35

References 39

Table

Table 1: Key progress on migration by national authorities in MPF countries. As reported by the EU in June 2017 18